SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 520.

An Act to amend section one thousand one of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-three (Pamphlet Laws three hundred fifty-nine) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto"

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend Section 1, page 2, line 2, by striking out the light-faced brackets before and after the word "fifteen"; also same line, by striking out the word "ten"; also line 4, by striking out the word "one" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "two".

On the question,

Will the House concur in the amendments made by the Senate?

Mr. WASHINGTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House do non-concur in the amendments made by the Senate.

Mr. EDERER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly,

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL NO. 435.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 12, 1929.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith without my approval House Bill No. 435, file folio 1063, entitled, "An Act to amend section twenty of the act approved the tenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred sixty-six) entitled 'An Act relative to the establishment and jurisdicboard of magistrates providing for a chief magistrate prescribing their powers and duties providing for clerks establishing a central administrative office imposing upon the City of Philadelphia the cost of establishment and maintenance of magistrates' courts including payment of all salaries and restricting magistrates to duties of office and repealing certain prior acts' permitting defendants when held for court by such magistrates to name two persons whom the Commonwealth must subpoena at the trial thereof."

This bill would require magistrates in Philadelphia county in all criminal cases where the defendant is held for court, to ask such defendant for the names and addresses of two persons whom he wishes subpoenaed for his trial. The names and addresses so furnished would become a part of the magistrates' records and the Commonwealth would be required to subpoena such persons to appear at the trial.

No doubt the underlying purpose of this bill is to afford protection for poor defendants in criminal cases who do not have the resources with which to procure witnesses in their behalf. I should gladly approve a bill which gave to the magistrates discretion to take the names of two witnesses for a defendant and place them upon the transcript so that they might be notified when a case comes to trial in a court of record. However, the present bill goes too far in that it renders it mandatory in every criminal case, regardless of the circumstances of the defendant, for the magistrate to take two names of witnesses and for the district attorney to subpoena them at the Commonwealth's expense.

There is also a question whether under the Constitution a measure of this kind can validly apply only to procedure in counties of one class.

For these reasons the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. CONNER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. TURNER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, about a week ago the City of Harrisburg, the County of Dauphin and the State of Pennsylvania suffered a great loss in the death of one of its foremost citizens. It is typical of him that at the time he was stricken he was rendering another public service to the community in which he lived. I speak of the former Lieutenant Governor, the Honorable Edward E. Beidleman. I think there are a great number of the members of this House who remember Mr. Beidleman very well, and I think that aside from his public honors, his public duties, that those of us who know him personally will remember him for his many kindly acts in our behalf. At the time of his death some of the young ladies employed in and about the capital were discussing his death and some one remarked that they thought they should contribute something to buy some flowers to send to his funeral, one of the young ladies stated that rather than sending the flowers that she would appreciate the tribute more if they were to contribute some money to the Welfare Federation in Harrisburg, the drive in which he was interested. Some of these young ladies have not only contributed their money but have asked other employes of the Legislature in and about the Capitol who desire to participate in this fund, and therefore I have been requested to ask those employes who would like to contribute to this mark of esteem to this great citizen of Pennsylvania, to see Mrs. Cohen one of the House stenographers. If there are any members of the House who would likewise like to contribute to this fund such a contribution would be appreciated and they are requested to send their donations to Miss Barnett in the office of the Chief Clerk of the House.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal

RESOLUTION NO. 25.

Mr. GRIFFITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up Resolution No. 25, file folio 6983, which was twice read considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, April 8th, 1929.

Whereas The full development of the various industries of the Commonwealth demands the construction of more improved highways and

Whereas The road building as outlined and contemplated in the Commonwealth involves the improvement of many roads of an interstate nature justifying the co-operation and assistance of the Federal Government in its development and

Whereas The Congress of the United States has for many years been appropriating Federal aid for road construction at the rate of seventy-five million dollars ($75,000,000) per year and

Whereas In view of the rapidly increasing traffic on the interstate highways within this State it is apparent that the building of roads in this State must be speeded up in order to adequately meet the needs of such interstate traffic therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur) That we hereby recommend to the President of the United States and to the Congress that at the coming special Session of Congress the annual Federal aid road appropriation be increased from seventy-five million dollars ($75,000,000) per year to not less than one hundred million dollars ($100,000,000) per year and be it further

Resolved That on the passage of this resolution the Chief Clerk of the House shall certify a copy hereof to the President of the United States to the President of the Senate to the Speaker of the House of Representatives of the Congress of the United States to the Chairman of the Committee on Roads of the Senate and to the Chairman of the Committee on Roads of the House of Representatives and to each State Legislature now in Session.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

BILL ON FINAL PASSAGE.

Mr. BLUMBERG asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up House Bill No. 2313, (Senate Bill No. 937), file folio 6033, on page 6 of today's calendar, bills on final pasage postponed.

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. Blumberg,

The House resumed the consideration on final passage of House Bill No. 2313, (Senate Bill No. 937), entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Board of Managers of the Seamen's Church Institute of Philadelphia Pennsylvania.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this is an appropriation bill which certain members of the House wanted to make inquiry about as to whether or not it was sectarian. Actually it is a Seaman's Boarding House that entertains sailors from every nation of the world and is nonsectarian and there is no objection to this appropriation.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows, viz:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILL No. 284.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 16, 1929.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I have the honor to inform you that I have this date approved and signed House Bill No. 284, file folio 5951, entitled, "A supplement to an act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws seven hundred and seventy-eight) entitled 'An act to provide for the registration and protection of the names badges mottoes buttons decorations charms emblems rosettes and other insignia of associations lodges orders fraternal societies beneficial societies or fraternal and beneficial societies or associations historical military or veterans organizations labor union foundation federation or any other society organization or association degree branch subordinate lodge or auxiliary thereof to prohibit the wearing exhibition display or use of the same by any person not entitled to wear exhibit display or use the same and fixing a penalty for the violation of this act' conferring jurisdiction upon the several courts of common pleas to issue injunctions to restrain violations of said act"

JOHN S. FISHER.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

VETO OF HOUSE BILL No. 1288.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 11, 1929.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I return herewith without my approval House Bill No. 1288, file folio 2871, entitled, "An Act to amend sections two and three and repeal section one of the act approved the tenth day of April one thousand eight hundred and seventy-three (Pamphlet Laws six hundred twenty-five) entitled 'A Supplement to an act entitled "An act relative to the Berks county prison and to discharged convicts" approved the eighth day of February one thousand eight hundred and forty-eight' reducing the number of the board of inspectors at the Berks county prison from nine to three fixing their terms of office and the method of filling vacancies and terminating the terms of office of the members of the present board".

This bill amends the Act of April 10, 1873, P. L. 625, which is a supplement to the Act of February 8, 1838, relative to Berks County Prison.

This bill is in violation of Article III, Section 7 of the Constitution, which provides that the General Assembly shall not pass any local or special law regulating the affairs of counties.

For this reason the bill is not approved.

JOHN S. FISHER.

On the question,

Shall the bill become a law, the veto of the Governor to the contrary notwithstanding?

Mr. BAUSHER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the communication, together with the bill be laid upon the table.

Mr. BEHM. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED SENATE BILL CONCURRED IN BY SENATE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate has concurred in the amendments made by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill numbered and entitled as follows, viz:

SENATE BILL No. 22.

An Act making an appropriation to the Harrisburg Hospital of Harrisburg Pennsylvania

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER.

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

Senate Bill No. 22.

An Act making an appropriation to the Harrisburg Hospital of Harrisburg Pennsylvania

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

RESOLUTION.

Mr. DUNN asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution, which was twice read as follows:

In the House of Representatives, April 16, 1929.

Whereas; One of the most important, if not troublesome and dangerous questions confronting the United States and now before the people for solution, is the unemployment of the wage earner, and

Whereas; There is nothing more important calling for the immediate attention of our public officials than the question of unemployment, and

Whereas; Many attempts have been made from time to time by national, state and municipal authorities to secure an approximate estimate of the number of wage earners unemployed at a given time but without results, and

Whereas; The question of unemployment like all other questions, to be properly and intelligently handled, it first becomes necessary to ascertain as accurately as possible all the facts in the case, and

Whereas; It is also necessary to recognize that there is a serious problem to be solved before it can be properly handled and because of lack of proper information, this troublesome question of unemployment is no nearer solution today than it was years ago, and

Whereas; The provisions of the United States Constitution provides for the taking of the census every ten years, and the legislation that it would be necessary to enact by Congress by which supervisors and enumerators will be appointed in all parts of the United States to take up the new census, and

Whereas; If this same organization that will be set up to do this work is directed to take the census of the unemployed wage earners throughout the United States, this will be the means of obtaining for the first time intelligent and accurate information as to the number of unemployed in the United States, therefore

Be It Resolved, and it is hereby resolved, that the Senate and House of Representatives of the 1929 Session of the Pennsylvania State Legislature memorialize the Congress of the United States, the United States Senators and Congressmen from Pennsylvania to use their best offices to have legislation enacted which will provide that the supervisors and enumerators taking up the new census will also take the census of the unemployed.

Ordered, That the Resolution lie over for printing under the rules.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2305, (Senate Bill No. 465), entitled:

An Act permitting the district attorney or any assistant district attorney in the several counties of this Commonwealth to be present during the presentation of all matters to the grand juries in their in their sessions in the several third class counties of this Commonwealth lay before them matters upon which they are to pass and to aid them in their examination of witnesses

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the passage of this act the district attorney or any assistant district attorney in third class counties of this Commonwealth may be present during the presentation of all matters to the grand juries in their sessions in third class counties of this Commonwealth to lay before them matters upon which they are to pass to aid them in their examination of witnesses

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. BART RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. BART RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have in my hand here two telegrams which may be of interest to the members of this House. They may be also a rather gruesome reminder that there is some need of a firearms registration act and that this should be called to the attention of the next session. With your permission I will read the telegram: "Philadelphia, April 16th. Clinton A. Sowers, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Last night seven auto bandits robbed the payroll of Krola Wladyslaw Jagiello Building and Loan Association and his three body guards of fifty seven hundred dollars. The bandits fired their guns but the shots missed. See Newspapers. Was the new gun law passed? (Signed) Balukie."

The other telegram read as follows: "Philadelphia, April 16th, 1929, Honorable Clinton A. Sowers, House of Representatives, Harrisburg, Pennsylvania. Your office check for twelve hundred dollars was included in the Krola Wladyslaw Jagiello robbery but payment has been stopped. (Signed) Balukie".

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread upon the Journal.

SENATE MESSAGE.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1929 — 128th of the General Assembly

Vol. 11 — HARRISBURG, WEDNESDAY, APRIL 17, 1929 — No. 39

SENATE.

WEDNESDAY, April 17, 1929.

The Senate met at 12 o'clock noon.

The PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Horace W. Schantz) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Thou righteous and just God, we would remember in our petitions all those individuals and groups that have petitioned this Legislature for certain enactments. May they remember that all sincere Legislators are governed by the principle, in their legislation, of the greatest good to the greatest number. If any be disappointed, we pray that they may readily submit to the decisions of those who are in authority; and may they remain loyal and true toward the great system of American government. May our patriotism stand every test to which it is subjected. We ask for all these mercies in Thine own most excellent name. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. McCROSSIN, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

HOUSE APPOINTS COMMITTEE OF CONFERENCE.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, informed the Senate that the House insists on its non-concurrence in the amendments made by the Senate to House Bill No. 1856, entitled:

Ordered, That the Clerk return said bill to the House of Representatives with information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the House is requested.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 1167, (House Bill No. 814), on third reading, entitled:

An act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-first day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (P. L. 268) entitled "An act relating to police pension funds in cities of the third class and directing such cities to appropriate certain moneys thereto" be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Affairs.

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion,

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I want to call the attention of the Senate to this bill. It was held up for many months, until the League of Third-Class Cities could agree on the legislation. There is also another bill on the calendar following it, and applies to other municipalities,—boroughs and cities generally throughout the Commonwealth. I feel that this bill should be passed and not recommitted. I have taken it up thoroughly with Mr. Ramsey, representing the League of Third-Class Cities, and I would ask the Senator from Delaware, Mr. McClure, to kindly withdraw his motion.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, this bill provides for Police Pension Funds, and states that the municipalities shall set aside so much money. At the present time there is an act that provides they may do it. I think this question should be left with the third-class cities to handle as they see fit, because they know better the condition of their financial affairs; and for this body to make it mandatory might be a hardship on a great many of them. I should like to ask the Senators to support me in recommitting this bill.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, when this bill was originally drafted it set out to take a certain percentage from the taxes for the relief fund, and in the House that provision was amended out of it. As I understand it,—and I am thoroughly familiar with it—it does not hurt the taxables nor the municipalities whatsoever; it merely permits the Police Department, and the fraternal orders of the police throughout the State, in cities of the third class, to start some enabling legislation to establish a police fund. And in the other bill, which you gentlemen will find on your calendars later on in the day, provides such and such a percentage of the policemen's wages shall be taken to build up that fund.

Now, we have worked very earnestly for this, and it is favored, in my opinion, by a majority of the third-class cities; and I repeat that it was through an agreement with Mr. Ramsey and myself that this bill was held in committee until the twin bill could get over here; and I ask the Senate not to recommit this bill. If it be not recommitted, I will follow with a motion to let it go over until we have more time to reconsider it.

M. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, this is practically the same bill this body has defeated in the last two or three sessions of the General Assembly. Senator Kitts had a similar bill in here last session. Under the present law there is all the enabling power that is necessary. The council may, at its discretion, appropriate an amount not exceeding one-half of one per cent. of the taxable money in any particular year. Under this bill they would be compelled to appropriate one-half of one per cent. It is absolutely against the principle of home rule.

And the other act that is talked about could be operated better if the present law was maintained. That other bill will come up on the calendar later, and it can be put into operation without this bill in a better manner than with this bill.

The reason I am opposed to this bill is not because of the fact that it would give the pension fund a certain amount of money but because it compels Council to make an appropriation; and I believe the Council themselves are in a better position to judge how much should be appropriated each year than the Legislature.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I am not at all terrified by the cry of home rule. I think the Legislature is wiser, probably than City Council; but the point I want to make is that we ought to welcome every pension scheme that comes along, provided it is ample; because if we do not encourage retirement funds and pension funds it is another argument in favor of old age pensions—to pay every man and woman over a certain age a dollar a day, and I am in favor of this as against old age pensions.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Mansfield.

The PRESIDENT. Will the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Mansfield, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I will.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, has the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Mansfield, examined the bill since the House of Representatives cut out the provision for paying the one-half of one per cent. of the taxes?

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I do not know whether I have or not.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, that provision has been eliminated.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

A division being called for, 15 Senators voted in the affirmative and 19 in the negative, whereupon the question was decided in the negative.

BILL OVER IN ORDER.

Mr. KITTS. Mr. President, I ask that Senate Bill No. 1167, (House Bill No. 814), on third reading, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the twenty-first day of April, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws two hundred sixty-eight) entitled "An act relating to police pension funds in cities of the third class and directing such cities to appropriate certain moneys thereto."

go over in its order.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

An appeal stays all proceedings in furtherance of the action appealed from unless the officer from whom the appeal is taken certifies to the Board of Adjustment after the notice of appeal shall have been filed with him that by reason of facts stated in the certificate a stay would in his opinion cause imminent peril to life or property In such case proceedings shall not be stayed otherwise than by a restraining order which may be granted by the Board of Adjustment or by a court of record no application and notice to the officer from whom the appeal is taken and on due cause shown

The Board of Adjustment shall fix a reasonable time for the hearing of the appeal give public notice thereof as well as due notice to the parties in interest and decide the same within a reasonable time Upon the hearing any party may appear in person or by agent or by attorney

The Board of Adjustment shall have the following powers

1 To hear and decide appeals where it is alleged there is error in any order requirement decision or determination made by an administrative official in the enforcement of this act or of any ordinance adopted pursuant thereto

2 To hear and decide special exceptions to the terms of the ordinance upon which such board is required to pass under such ordinance

3 To authorize upon appeal in specific cases such variance from the terms of the ordinance as will not be contrary to the public interest where owing to special conditions a literal enforcement of the provisions of the ordinance will result in unnecessary hardship and so that the spirit of the ordinance shall be observed and substantial justice done

In exercising the above-mentioned powers such board may in conformity with the provisions of this act reverse or affirm wholly or partly or may modify the order requirement decision or determination appealed from and may make such order requirement decision or determination as ought to be made and to that end shall have all the powers of the officer from whom the appeal is taken

The concurring vote of four members of the Board of Adjustment shall be necessary to reverse any order requirement decision or determination of any such administrative official or to decide in favor of the applicant on any matter upon which it is required to pass under any such ordinance or to effect any variation in such ordinance

Any person or persons jointly or severally aggrieved by any decision of the Board of Adjustment or any taxpayer or any officer department board or bureau of the city may present to a court of record a petition duly verified setting forth that such decision is illegal in whole or in part specifying the grounds of the illegality Such petition shall be presented to the court within thirty (30) days after the filing of the decision in the office of the board

Upon the presentation of such petition the court may allow a writ of certiorari directed to the Board of Adjustment to review such decision of the Board of Adjustment and shall prescribe therein the time within which a return thereto must be made and served upon the appellant's attorney which shall not be less than ten days and may be extended by the court The allowance of the writ shall not stay proceedings upon the decision appealed from but the court may on application on notice to the board and on due cause shown grant a restraining order

The Board of Adjustment shall not be required to return the original papers acted upon by it but it shall be sufficient to return certified or sworn copies thereof or of such portions thereof as may be called for by such writ The return shall concisely set forth such other facts as may be pertinent and material to show the grounds of the decision appealed from and shall be verified The Board of Adjustment shall be respondent in said appeal with the right to appear in person or by counsel and defend said action The court may permit any person or persons claiming an interest to assert his or their right by intervention

If upon the hearing it shall appear to the court that testimony is necessary for the proper disposition of the matter it may take evidence or appoint a referee to take such evidence as it may direct and report the same to the court with his findings of fact and conclusions of law which shall constitute a part of the proceedings upon which the determination of the court shall be made The court may reverse or affirm wholly or partly or may modify the decision brought up for review

Costs shall not be allowed against the board unless it shall appear to the court that it acted with gross negligence or in bad faith or with malice in making the decision appealed from

All issues in any proceeding under this section shall have preference over all other civil actions and proceedings

Section 9—BUREAU OF ZONING—If any city of the first class avails itself of the provisions of this act there shall be attached to the Department of Public Works of such city a Bureau of Zoning under the direction of a chief of said bureau and with such other officials clerks and employes as the council may determine All ordinances passed under the provisions of this act shall be enforced by the Bureau of Zoning subject to the right of appeal to the Board of Adjustment and to the courts as herein provided for with the information that the House has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. President, I move that Rule 21, which requires amended bills to be noted on the calendar, be in this case dispensed with, and that the Senate proceed to the consideration of the amendments made by the House of Representatives to the foregoing bill.

Mr. EARNEST. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Said amendments having been printed as required by the Constitution, were twice read as follows:

Amend Section 8, page 7, by striking out lines 10 to 18 inclusive.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were taken agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—49.

A majority of all the Senators having voted "aye" the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

RESOLUTION AUTHORIZING SUSPENSION OF JOINT RULE No. 8.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. BUCKMAN offered the following resolution which was twice read, as follows:

In the Senate, April 17, 1929.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That Rule 8 of the "Joint Rules of the Senate and House of Representatives of Pennsylvania" which reads as follows: "Rule 8, No bill, resolution, or order, to which the signature of the Governor may be required, shall be passed by either House on the day of final adjournment; and all such bills, resolutions, and orders, after they have been duly compared and certified by the proper committee shall be presented to the Governor for his signature, before eight o'clock on the morning of the day of the final adjournment," be and the same is hereby suspended for the balance of the Session of One Thousand Nine Hundred and Twenty-nine.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, I move that Rule 39 which requires current resolutions to be referred to an appropriate committee be suspended and that the Senate do now proceed to the consideration of the resolution just read.

Mr. DAVIS. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, this is a matter for the Senate to understand,—why it requires a two-thirds vote. The question is on the resolution to suspend the rule; and therefore the members ought to vote for this resolution. It will not detain them any long time on the calendar we may have; but there will be legislation fall here tomorrow unless this joint rule of the House and Senate is suspended.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. BUCKMAN and Mr. DAVIS, and were as follows, viz:

YEAS—49.

Apple,	Ealy,	Hunsicker	Parkinson,
Aron,	Earnest,	Kitts,	Prince,

NAYS—0.

So the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

RECESS.

Mr. CLARK. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now recess until 3 o'clock P. M.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

AFTER RECESS.

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed the Senate will be in order.

SENATE BILL No. 42 RETURNED WITH AMENDMENTS.

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 42, entitled:

The ACTING PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE (Mr. Frank E. Baldwin) in the Chair.

REPORT OF DELEGATES TO AMERICAN LEGISLATORS' ASSOCIATION.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, I desire at this time to make a report to the Senate as delegate to the American Legislator's Association in Seattle, Washington, July, 23, 1928.

The first session of the American Legislators' Association recognized and attended by any delegates from the General Assembly of Pennsylvania was held in Denver, Colorado, in 1926. That meeting was attended by Senators Woodward, MacDade, of Delaware County, myself on behalf of the Senate, and Franklin Spencer Edmonds, then a member of the House, on behalf of the House.

In 1927 the Association met in Buffalo, New York. As President Pro Tempore of the Senate at that time I appointed as delegates on behalf of the Senate to attend that session Senators Woodward, from Philadelphia, MacDade, from Delaware County, and Sones, from Lycoming County. It developed that at the time of the session none of those Senators was able to attend, and at that session in Buffalo in 1927 we were not represented.

The Session of 1928 was held in Seattle, Washington, and I attended that session. I had also appointed Senator Woodward, from Philadelphia, as a delegate. When the time of going to Seattle came he found he would have to go to Seattle a month later to attend a Congressional Conference on Taxation; and he would not go to Seattle twice in so short a time, so I went alone. I left Allentown July 15, 1928, and returned August 15; so I was gone exactly a month.

The Association met in Seattle, Washington, July 23, 1928. Under arrangements the National Conference on Uniform Laws, the American Legislators' Association and the American Bar Association met at the same time, on succeeding dates. I went from Allentown to Chicago, where I joined Tour A of the American Bar Association, which was made up of two special sections of members of the American and others from the entire eastern and middle parts of the United States, Canada and Mexico. I joined that tour and went to Seattle with them, and came back to Chicago with them.

"The American Legislators' Association represents an effort on the part of legislators themselves to give a constructive turn to the widespread criticism of legislative conditions which has been prevalent in this country for generations.

"Underlying the entire plan is the thought that there should be a central organization to give currency and effectiveness to all proposals calculated to improve the character of our legislatures as to personnel and organization, and to bring each legislator the opportunity to profit by the research, experience and judgment of other legislators and of the individuals and organizations best versed in legislative problems. It is hoped thus to improve the quality—and perhaps to reduce the quantity—of the statutes of the various states.

"The seven oustanding features of the Association's program are:

"1. A clearing house for the legislative reference bureaus of the various states. Doubtless each state government should maintain a legislative reference bureau or some corresponding office to render assistance to legislators who desire aid in research or drafting. Already more than a score of states maintain legislative reference bureaus. This Association plans to publish information concerning the possibilities of such bureaus. As the number of bureaus increases, it becomes increasingly necessary for them to have a clearing house to avoid duplication and to expedite their work. By no means can each buerau have up-to-date information always available concerning the material which each other bureau is preparing or has on hand.

"2. An information switch-board through which any legislator or the director of any legislative reference bureau can 'plug in' bb letter or telegram, and at once be connected with the best sources of information in the United States concerning his current problem.

"3. A periodical, THE LEGISLATOR, sent to every one of the 7500 legislators, with information concerning new reports, periodicals and books of value to legislators; concerning significant legislative innovations; concerning noteworthy methods of legislative efficiency; and concerning legislative recommendations of the Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and of other organizations such as the National Education Association, the American Bar Association, the American Medical Association, the National Conference of Social Work, and so forth. It will be the purpose of this periodical to stimulate the interest of legislators in independent reading and research.

"4. An annual meeting of legislators immediately preceding the annual meeting of the American Bar Association. Probably one-fifth of our legislators are attorneys—in other words some 1500 lawyers hold office as legislators today. It seems reasonable to anticipate that eventually a substantial number of them will combine attendance at the meetings of this Association and of the American Bar Association. This attendance will increase as the Association acquires momentum. If only by reason of the interchange of information concerning methods of legislative efficiency and economy, these meetings might bring great benefits to many states.

"5. A Legislative Assembly to meet annually at the time of the general meeting described in the preceding paragraph. This Assembly is to consist of ninety-six legislators, one elected by each branch of each legislature. Of course, such a group would have no authority, but it would have various possibilities of an advisory character. For instance, it could guage the sentiment of the legislatures to determine whether the the majority seemed disposed to consider at their next sessions any given proposal for uniform laws. Through it there might be a readier interchange of views to facilitate the drafting of thoroughly acceptable interstate compacts, when necessary. It might furnish an easier channel of informal communication in regard to the relation between state and federal governments in some matters such, for instance, as state aid or state co-operation in the enforcement of federal statutes. More whole-hearted co-operation between neighboring states in connection with the development or conservation of natural resources would sometimes result from informal discussion by representative legislators. Certainly such an Assembly could be of great aid in establishing a more direct relationship between the National Conference of Commissioners on Uniform State Laws and the forty-eight state legislatures.

"6. A dozen Committees, each dealing with an important subject of legislative concern, and each having an Advisory Board of twenty individuals who are recognized as national authorities in the Committee's field. Thus, for example, the Association hopes to have a Committee on Health composed of 96 legislators, most of whom are the Chairmen of the Medical or Health Committees of their respective Houses in the State Legislatures, and, to counsel the Committee, an Advisory Board composed of twenty nationally prominent heads of health departments, physicians, and liaison representatives of national organizations concerned with health matters. These twelve Advisory Boards are already organized, and they contain about 240 individuals of genuine distinction. It has been suggested that a group from the Committee on Social Welfare might meet annually at the time of the meeting of the National Conference of Social Work; a group from the Taxation Committee at the time of the meeting of the National Tax Association; a group from the Health Committee at the time of the annual meeting of the American Medical Association; and so forth.

"7. A campaign to improve the personnel of our legislatures. It is undoubtedly possible to correct some of the causes which prevent a larger number of citizens of the best type from becoming candidates for the state legislatures. Through its Committee on Legislative Efficiency, this Association plans to conduct a study to determine and formulate these causes, and to consider whether or not it is probable that more legislators of the best type can be secured by revising existing practices in such matters as:

a. Length of term of office.
b. Compensation.
c. Size of legislature.
d. Length of sessions.
e. Assistance for the legislator.

The officers of this organization are: Henry W. Toll of Denver, Colorado, who is the Honorary Director; Stanley H. Johnson of Denver, Colorado, who is Acting Director; Robert L. Patterson of Taft, California; who is President; and myself as Vice-President. The Board of Managers are the following: Howard M. Baxter of Grand Rapids, Michigan; Chester C. Bolton of Cleveland, Ohio; Seabury Mastick of New York City; Milton C. Lightner of St. Paul, Minnesota; Charles R. Hollingsworth of Ogden, Utah; Naaman Jackson of Logan, West Virginia; Sanborn Young of Los Gatos, California; Howard P. Castle of Chicago, Illinois; Henry L. Shattuck of Boston, Massachusetts; and William B. Belknay of Goshen, Kentucky. And there are Advisory Boards concerning Legislative Efficiency and legislation on numerous subjects.

From Pennsylvania we have Councilors, from both the Senate and the House. Those from the Senate are: Senators Woodward, Parkinson, Kunkle, Frazier and myself. And those from the House are: Grover C. Talbot, Norman Baily, Clarence L. Ederer, Miss Helen Grimes and Morris J. Root.

The Association met in Seattle, Washington, where many subjects were discussed. The meeting was addressed, among others, by Gurney E. Newlin, who is now President of the American Bar Association; by N. Edmund Smith of Hutchinson, Kansas, an authority and well-known writer on the Constitution of the United States; and by many others. As I have said, many subjects of law were discussed;—taxation, different kinds of taxation, highways, uniform laws,—and every question imaginable.

I consider the American Legislators' Association very valuable, and I trust that the General Assembly of Pennsylvania may continue to cooperate with this national body. This year the Association will meet in Memphis, Tennessee,—I do not know that the time has been definitely fixed, but I think it will be sometime in October.

This is a brief report of my attendance as delegate from the General Assembly of Pennsylvania to the American Legislators' Association. I feel highly honored at having been given permission to attend, and express my appreciation to the members of the Senate on that behalf. It would be too lengthy for me to go into details as to everything that was done. If there is any member of the Senate who desires that specific information, I will be glad to give it.

Nr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, after listening to the report of the Chairman of this Committee, it gives me pleasure to offer the following resolution, and move it be adopted.

Resolved, That the report of Senator Schantz as delegate to the Annual Meeting of the American Legislators' Association in Seattle, Washington, July 23, 1928, be accepted and approved.

Resolved, That we congratulate him upon being chosen Vice-President of this national body. His election is a credit to the Senate and an honor to our Commonwealth.

Resolved, That we commend him for the economy practiced by him on his trip and for leaving an unexpended balance of $193.53, of the appropriation of $1000.00, made for said purpose.

We hereby direct the Auditor General and State Treasurer to approve and pay the bill presented by him.

Resolved, That we urge a continuance by the General Assembly of Pennsylvania, of its co-operation with the American Legislators' Association.

Resolved, That the report of Senator Schantz as said delegate, and these resolutions be printed in the Journal.

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

Mr. WOODWARD. Mr. President, in seconding the motion to adopt this resolution, I think the Senate may be interested to know that at these meetings the delegation from Pennsylvania was given the blue ribbon as being the most intelligent and perhaps the best looking of the delegates from any State.

The only explanation offered was that the salaries of the Pennsylvania legislators are higher than those of any other State of the Union. I never knew that before, but that is interesting.

Now, just a word more: We have, as you know, a Commission on Uniform Legislation. Judge Hargest is a member, and Mr. Schnader and Mr. William Draper Lewis, I think; and they meet coincidentally with this Association, and they have been trying for years to get uniform legislation on various subjects; and they fell down because they have no vote. As an illustration, on the subject of divorce, if the delegates to the American Legislators' Association agree to a uniform law they can put it across, whereas Judge Hargest and the others cannot put it across because they have no vote; and I put that as a matter of interest to this Senate.

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the resolution?

It was agreed to.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications in writing from his Excellency, the Governor of the Commonwealth, which were laid upon the table.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

WEDNESDAY, April 17, 1929.

The House met at 11.00 o'clock A. M.

The SPEAKER (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Martin W. Schweitzer, Ph.D., offered the following prayer:

Holy, Holy, Holy, Lord God Almighty, early in the morning our songs shall rise to Thee.

We praise, magnify and glorify Thy holy name. We thank Thee for the passion of patriotism. We bless Thee for the foundation which was laid by our forefathers; which was laid upon the Rock of Ages which is the same yesterday, today and forever. We thank Thee for the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords, who was the greatest patriot of all patriots; who came into this world not to be ministered unto but to minister; who gave us the great example of sacrifice and service. So we pray this morning that Thou wilt bless this session which is nearing a close. O Lord we thank Thee for the fellowship during this session and for the harmony and unity; for the upbuilding of this great country of ours.

My country, 'tis of Thee; sweet land of liberty, of Thee I sing. We pray for the sick and the needy and the afflicted, the sorrowing and the dying; especially be Thou with those who are in affliction and distress and finally when Thou art done with us in this world do Thou own and save us in heaven through our Lord, Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the Journal of yesterday.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of yesterday, when, on motion of Mr. Yerg, seconded by Mr. Baily, the further reading was dispensed with and the Journal approved.

The first section was read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the seventh day of June one thousand nine hundred and one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred ninety-three) entitled "An act providing for the examination licensure and registration of persons firms or corporations engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage and prescribing certain rules regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools in cities of the second class and imposing fines penalties and forfeitures for violation thereof" as amended by the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (Pamphlet Laws two hundred seventy-six) entitled "An act further amending section one of an act entitled 'An act providing for the examination licensure and registration of persons firms or corporations engaged or engaging in the business or work of plumbing or house drainage and prescribing certain rules regulations and requirements for the construction of plumbing house drainage and cesspools in cities of the second class and imposing fines penalties and forfeitures for violation thereof" approved the seventh day of June Anno Domini one thousand nine hundred and one extending the provisions of said act to all cities of the third class" is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1 That from and after the passage of this act it shall not be lawful for any persons to carry on or work at the business of plumbing or house or building drainage in the cities of the second (and) or third class or in boroughs incorporated towns or townships of the first class of this Commonwealth until a certificate or license to engage in or work at said business shall have been granted said persons (by the Director of the Department of Public Safety or Department or Board or Bureau of Health of such cities) nor until they have registered as such (in the office of the Department or Board or Bureau of Health of said cities) as hereinafter provided

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. PETERS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill, which is not in proper form, be recommitted to the Committee on Counties and Townships.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I rise in opposition to this motion to recommit. I understand that this bill is a bill that is advocated by the State Department of Health. Its purpose is to extend the present act applying in first and second class cities to townships of the first class. Whether the bill has merit, or whether the bill should meet with your disapproval, in view of the fact that it is a State department of health bill and coming up in the closing days of the Session, I think the motion to recommit would be out of order and that this bill should be allowed to come on the third reading calendar. The entire membership of the House would then have an opportunity of expressing its approval or disapproval. I believe that this bill is entitled to that courtesy and I would ask the members of this House to vote the motion down.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I seconded the motion that this bill be recommitted to the committee on Counties and Townships. A companion bill of the bill before us was offered in the House and the Committee postponed action on it indefinitely. Unfortunately this bill that came from the Senate was not referred to the Committee on Counties and Townships where it belonged and I therefore ask the members of the House to vote for the recommitment of this bill.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the reason given by the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Talbot, that the bill should be recommitted because it was not referred to the Committee on Counties and Townships, certainly must appear as a very poor reason to the members of the House, everything considered and in view of the fact that we are now in the closing days of the session. Recommitting this bill now, and of course recommitting any bill today, means only one thing and that is the death of the bill. I think that we as members of this House should have enough manhood and womanhood to leave this bill go on the third reading calendar, and at least show sufficient courtesy to the Department of Health that they will at least believe that we are going to give them the same courteous consideration as has been given to other bills in this session. I can see absolutely no harm that can come to any man or woman in this House who registers approval or disapproval of this bill. If we have reached the stage in legislation where we are not going to have enough courage to vote our sentiments on the floor of this House, then I think that we have fallen on evil ways and days. I have no interest in this bill; I am not a plumber. I don't know anything about this bill except that the Department of Health has submitted it with its approval, and I believe we should consult their wishes in the matter. They should know the merits or the lack of merits in a bill and I have falth in their judgment, otherwise the bill would not be here today. I ask you to vote down the motion.

Mr. PEELOR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, this bill as it is printed now is not in proper form.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in reply to the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, it seems to me from his explanation that this is a department bill and for that reason that we should go along with it, is worthy of some consideration on the part of the members of this House and because of that very argument, I ask you to recommit this bill.

Mr. HAGMAIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I hate to take issue with either one of these two gentlemen. We have no assurance that this is a department measure and we never have had. I wish to call your attention to the fact that in February when the state association of cities and boroughs met here they went on record unanimously against this bill and likewise the association of first class townships are on record against this bill. It affects the boroughs and townships and no one else and therefore I hope you will put the bill back in the Committee on Counties and Townships where it rightfully belongs.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker declared the ayes appear to have it.

Whereupon, A division was called for and 84 members voting in the affirmative and 43 in the negative, the motion was agreed to and the bill is recommitted to the Committee on Counties and Townships.

BILLS ON SECOND READING.

Donnell,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed it without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2390, (Senate Bill No. 9), as follows:

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred seventy-nine) entitled "An act imposing a State tax on anthracite coal providing for the assessment and collection thereof and providing penalties for the violation of this act" fixing the time when taxation of anthracite coal shall cease, and the rate of said tax

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That section one of the act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws four hundred seventy-nine) entitled "An act imposing a State tax on anthracite coal providing for the assessment and collection thereof and providing penalties for the violation of this act" be and the same is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same That from and after the passage of this act each and every ton of anthracite coal of the weight of two thousand two hundred and forty (2,240) pounds avoirdupois mined washed screened or otherwise prepared for market in this Commonwealth shall be made subject to a tax of one and one-half per centum (1½) to the thirty first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine one per centum (1) for the period beginning on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine and ending on the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty and one-half (½) of one per centum for the period beginning on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty and ending on the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one of the value thereof when prepared for market which said tax shall be assessed at the time when said coal has been mined washed or screened and is ready for shipment or market After the thirty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-one no tax shall be assessed on anthracite coal under the provisions of this act saving to the Commonwealth however the right to collect thereafter all taxes imposed or due and owing under the provisions of this act

Section 2 Nothing contained in this repeal shall be construed to prevent the collection of any tax duly collectable to the date when this repeal takes effect

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the chairman of the Ways and Means Committee, Mr. Sterling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. STERLING. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to ask the chairman of the Committee on Ways and Means, if this committee has in anywise provided for revenue to take the place of the revenue that will be lost to the State of Pennsylvania by the passage of this act in the next two years?

Mr. STERLING. No. sir, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WELLS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if no other means have been provided for, I shall have to vote against this measure.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. DAVIDSON. Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, we have with us this morning a former member of this House who represented the district which Mr. Hagmaier and I have been trying to represent for the last two sessions, a man esteemed in his own town and in his own county and I believe in his own State; a man who has courage and a man who is not afraid to use that courage. It gives me great pleasure to present this morning Federal Judge Nelson McVicar of Tarentum.

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints the gentlemen from Allegheny, Messrs. Davidson and Hagmaier, to escort Judge McVicar to the rostrum.

It affords the Chair extreme pleasure to introduce to the members of this House at this time a gentleman with whom the Chair has served for a number of sessions, a gentleman whom I have always held in the highest esteem, the Honorable Nelson McVicar of Allegheny, who is now a Federal Judge, He will now address you.

REMARKS BY THE HONORABLE NELSON McVICAR.

The HONORABLE NELSON McVICAR. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I have stood here such a few times that standing here at this particular time in the closing days of the session gives me a considerable feeling of fear.

It has been my pleasure and happiness to have served with the Honorable John W. Vickerman from the Thirteenth Legislative District of Allegheny County in this House for ten years, from 1914 to 1924. Permit me to say that those are among the happiest and probably are the happiest years of my life. During that time, Mr. Speaker, it has been my privilege to serve, as you have already mentioned, with yourself, and as I look over the House and the list of the members I see quite a number that were here during the same time There are two former speakers of the House, Mr. Spangler of York County, and Mr. Goodnough of Cameron County. I also see a number of other old members, there is Mr. Williams of Tioga, and Mr. Flynn from Elk, and also a number of members from Philadelphia and Allegheny and other counties. The result of this acquaintanceship and the result of this association has made a friendship which has been impressed upon me. I feel now as I travel throughout this Commonwealth that everywhere I go there is some person in that community whom I know and whom I consider as a friend.

Also permit me to say this to you, and I know you don't want to hear speeches, you have heard many of them, but I do believe this, that to be a member of this House affords a great opportunity for public service that is really worth while; a service in supporting good, wise and wholesome legislation for a great Commonwealth such as we have here in Pennsylvania, and in the defeating of bad and vicious legislation. There is not much of it but generally some of it comes up in every session.

Just one other word and it seems to me that I learned this while I was here. The thought I have is that in this House you learn good sportsmanship. You know a good sport plays the game to win, he plays it fairly and he is a good winner or a good loser as the case may be. I found out from the numerous contests in which I took part while a member of this House that the members of this Assembly played the game to win and they played it fairly but they were good winners and they were good losers. I will not trespass on your time any farther. I thank you, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair feels that he is voicing the sentiment of every member of the House when he says that it is a real pleasure to have Judge McVicar with us and we extend an invitation to him to come again whenever it is possible.

BILL ON THIRD READING.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 2349, (Senate Bill No. 1308), entitled:

A Joint Resolution providing for the observance and commemoration of the one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the death of Brigadier General Casimir Pulaski, on October eleventh one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, establishing a commission to be known as the Pennsylvania Pulaski Sesquicentennial Commission and designating October eleventh, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine, as General Pulaski's Memorial Day.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE.

AMENDED HOUSE BILL RETURNED FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, returned bill from the House of Representatives numbered and entitled as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1548.

An Act to amend sections four hundred and thirty-two and four hundred and thirty-four of the act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (Pamphlet Laws eight hundred forty) entitled "An act concerning townships and revising amending and consolidating the law relating thereto" as amended

With the information that the Senate has passed the same with amendments, in which the concurrence of the House of Representatives is requested.

The SPEAKER. The Clerk will read the amendments.

The Clerk read the amendments, as follows:

Amend title, page 1, line 4, by striking out the word "thirty-four" and inserting in lieu thereof the word "thirty-two"; also lines 9 to 13, inclusive, by striking out the following: "twenty-first day of April one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred thirty-four) entitled "An act to further amend section four hundred thirty-four of the act approved the fourteenth day of July one thousand nine hundred seventeen (Pamphlet".

SENATE MESSAGE.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE ON SENATE BILL No. 197.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, informed that the Senate insists on its nonconcurrence in the amendments made and insisted upon by the House of Representatives to Senate Bill No. 197, entitled:

An Act authorizing the filing of notices of liens for taxes payable to the United States of America and certificates discharging such liens and to make uniform the law relating thereto

And has appointed Messrs. Fay, Kunkle and Scott a committee of conference to confer with a similar committee of the House of Representatives (if the House of Representatives shall appoint such committee) on the subject of the differences existing between the two Houses in relation to said bill.

APPOINTMENT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTE ON SENATE BILL No. 197.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker, I move that the House adhere to its amendments non-concurred in by the Senate and that a Conference Committee be appointed.

Mr. KLECKNER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The SPEAKER. The Chair appoints on the part of the House Messrs. Stadtlander, Turner and Staudenmeier.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RESOLUTION NO. 26.

Mr. DUNN asked and obtained unanimous consent to call up Resolution No. 26, file folio 8819, which was twice read, considered and adopted.

In the House of Representatives, April 16, 1929.

Whereas One of the most important if not troublesome and dangerous questions confronting the United States and now before the people for solution is the unemployment of the wage earner and

Whereas There is nothing more important calling for the immediate attention of our public officials than the question of unemployment and

Whereas Many attempts have been made from time to time by national state and municipal authorities to secure an approximate estimate of the number of wage earners unemployed at a given time but without results and

Whereas The question of unemployment like all other questions to be properly and intelligently handled it first becomes necessary to ascertain as accurately as possible all the facts in the case and

Whereas It is also necessary to recognize that there is a serious problem to be solved before it can be properly handled and because of lack of proper information this troublesome question of unemployment is no nearer solution today than it was years ago and

Whereas The provisions of the United States Constitution provides for the taking of the census every ten years and the legislation that it would be necessary to enact by Congress by which supervisors and enumerators will be appointed in all parts of the United States to take up the new census and

Whereas If this same organization that will be set up to do this work is directed to take the census of the unemployed wage earners throughout the United States this will be the means of obtaining for the first time intelligent and accurate information as to the number of unemployed in the United States therefore

Be It Resolved and it is hereby resolved that the Senate and House of Representatives of the one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine Session of the Pennsylvania State Legislature memorialize the Congress of the United States the United States Senators and Congressmen from Pennsylvania to use their best officers and have legislation enacted which will provide that the supervisors and enumerators taking up the new census will also take the census of the unemployed

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. LOUCKS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. LOUCKS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, now that the Senate has passed the gasoline bill and it is in all probability going to become a law, and being of the group to which I belong and which in my judgment is the most vitally affected, the farmer, I want to make these few statements.

The majority of the farmers at the last general election voted against the bond issue, which meant that they desired that the business of the Commonwealth be done on a pay as you go basis. Now, Mr. Speaker, my interpretation of that vote is not that they said no additional debts should be made but that if any additional debts are made the revenue should be provided to pay the debt when due. In my judgment the taxpayers of Pennsylvania are under no moral or legal obligation to construct highways through this State for the benefit of the general public without receiving a fair recompense for the use of them. I cannot give you definitely the number but from my observations I am satisfied that very considerably more than one-half of all the machines that are operated on the highways of Pennsylvania are operated by individuals whose only contribution to the construction of the highway is the purchase of a driver's or a machine license. Now, how about the other people who pay the balance of the money and the gas tax especially, the small property owner and the farmer whose property is on the highway. When a farmer buys his farm he pays exactly the same price for the road bed that he pays for the balance of his farm on which his buildings are. That is his first contribution. Then as these highways are improved the valuation of the farmer's property increases and he has got considerably more taxes to pay. The way you may get at it definitely is this; the farmer whose property is valued at ten thousand dollars pays each year from $140 to $200 for the construction of the highways and then as a result of the construction of that highway the valuation has been increased and he has got a larger proportion of the school taxes to pay and the county taxes to pay, and instead of paying $150 to $200 he is paying $235 to $250 each year. In addition to that, he pays exactly the same price the other group pays for his license,—for his machine and for his driver's license.

What happens when the roadway is opened up? The group that you see at the head of the procession is composed of the fellows who pay simply the cost of their driver's license and the cost of their machine license, and they come along to us farmers and wave their hands and say, "Stand back you can't afford it," and they state a very great truth there. It takes all the money the farmer can spare to pay these taxes and he has not got any money left to buy gasoline and enjoy the use of the road.

In behalf of this group, in whose hands a great and loving God has placed all things needful to provide the food to feed the people of this great Commonwealth, I am making these remarks. They have gone further than that, they have gone down into their jeans and have paid for the biggest part of the construction of these highways for the public to go over and enjoy the beauties that God has placed in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. Out of justice to that group I believe you ought to consider that additional cent added to the gasoline tax as a rebate and an indemnity for what they have done for the people of this Commonwealth.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman under his question of personal privilege will be spread at length on the Legislative Journal.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 1802, (Senate Bill No. 470), file folio 2341, entitled:

An Act to amend section one of the act, approved the seventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-seven, (P. L. 861), entitled "An act authorizing the use of certain moneys in the Motor License Fund for township reward and State-aid construction, and for certain purposes in counties of the first class, and making the necessary appropriation from the Motor License Fund therefor."

on page 3 of today's calendar, appropriation bill on third reading, passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. WHEELER. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

BILL RECOMMITTED.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Appropriations.

Mr. FRED W. PATTERSON. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

An Act to amend section seventeen of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred eighty-seven (Pamphlet Laws sixty-three) entitled "An act in relation to the imprisonment government and release of convicts in the Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory at Huntingdon" providing for the monthly payment of maintenance charges by counties to the Department of Revenue.

SENATE BILL No. 1156.

An Act to amend and supplement section one of the act approved the second day of July one thousand eight hundred and ninety-five (Pamphlet Laws four hundred twenty-five) entitled "An act granting to water power companies and other corporations owning or controlling water power authority to develop and distribute electric power by means of their water power and to erect construct and maintain the necessary buildings plant and apparatus for that purpose" by restricting the authority of such companies and conferring upon The Public Service Commission of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania certain jurisdiction in the premises.

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. On behalf of the Chief Clerk of the House, the Chair announces to the members that the luncheon will be served at midnight, twelve o'clock tonight. Tickets permitting you to attend can be secured by applying for them at the office of the Chief Clerk. The members will be guided accordingly.

MOTION TO RECOMMIT.

Mr. BART. RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 2424, (Senate Bill No. 714), file folio, 6231, entitled:

An Act relating to townships regulating the annexation of parts of townships to boroughs and cities and the incorporation of boroughs and cities within the limits of townships.

on page 8 of today's calendar, bills on second reading, be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Corporations.

Mr. BICKETT. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, Senate Bill No. 714 was presented in the Senate by Senator Brant of Allegheny County. The question of annexation has received much thought and consideration throughout the state for a number of years. They have found that in the townships at frequent intervals the adjacent boroughs and cities have been reaching out and annexing the most populous and the wealthiest sections of the townships. This has had a very detrimental effect on the school districts and the school system and the general financial status of those townships. The only purpose of this bill is to protect the townships in their entirety, and the people living in the townships. It is unfair and unjust to them to permit an adjoining municipality to come out into these townships, and take away from them their populous territory, a territory that is fully developed, and leave them nothing but undeveloped, barren territory. When they do annex this territory they leave with the remaining and poorer districts of the township the bonded indebtedness which must be assumed by the part remaining in the township. This bill as drawn is particularly fair in this particular. It provides that whenever a petition has been signed by five per cent of the latest and hightest vote in the township the matter may be presented to the voter therein, and it requires that in order for the annexation movement to succeed the majority in the whole township must vote in favor of permitting the particular district to secede, or the part that is wanted by the adjoining municipality to secede. I contend gentlemen that this bill is fair in principal. It is not an effort to break down any existing law pertaining to annexation, but as I say it is fair and equitable and I would ask you to vote this motion down.

Mr. BART RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, at the present time the annexation laws on the books of Pennsylvania, so far as third class cities are concerned, are unwieldly and unworkable. During the present session, under the sponsorship of the League of Third Class Cities, a bill was prepared and was passed by the Senate and by this House. That bill received the support of the Third Class City League and the boroughs and townships. This bill as now drawn would nullify every effect of this annexation bill which has [illegible] been passed and is upon the Governor's desk. This bill was supposed to have been left in committee. In some manner, that I know not how, it has come on the calendar during the last minutes of the session. I submit to you that if this bill were passed all the efforts of the League of Third Class Cities and of the members of the Senate and of this House who have interested themselves in the annexation bill which has heretofore been passed, would be of no avail. This is not a good bill in the light of the bill that has been passed and I sincerely trust that you will vote to recommit this bill to the Committee on Municipal Corporations.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, as far as I am personally concerned I do not care to go into the merits of the bill, but I have stood consistently, and I will as long as I am a member of this body, for the principle that when we come to the closing days of the session and a Senate bill is on second reading, it is no more than fair, courteous and honorable that the bill be permitted to come on to third reading and if there is anything objectionable in the measure, it can be thoroughly discussed on the floor by the membership of the House and it should not be destroyed in this manner. I think it is discourteous and unfair at this stage of the legislature to recommit any Senate bill when it should be considered by this House, and as a matter of courtesy to the Senator from Allegheny, I respectfully ask you to vote this motion down.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I entirely concur with Mr. Richard's criticism and his motion to have this bill recommitted. As stated before if this bill passes it will nullify the Weingartner Senate Bill which is an annexation bill which has had the endorsement of the Third Class City League of Pennsylvania. The Weingartner bill was prepared with greatest consideration and there were many amendments put in that bill in order to make it conform to the wishes of all the members of the House and of the Senate I think the Weingartner bill met with universal approval in its final form.

Senate Bill No. 714 provides that a majority of the whole number voting on such questions shall have voted in favor of such annexation. In other words, if a section of a township desires to be annexed, no matter how great the desire of that section of the township to be annexed may be, and no matter how advantageous it may be to that township, no matter how advantageous it may be to the city which is about to annex it, that annexation may be defeated by other sections of the township who have no particular interest in that portion or in the people of that section who desire to be annexed, by refusing to vote in favor of the annexation because of a selfish reason they may have for holding that section of the township within the township for the purpose of obtaining the taxes from that section. It does not seem to me to be a fair proposition. It certainly is not within the line of self-government, and for that reason it seems to me that this bill should be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Corporations where it can be held and where it will not cause embarrassment and harm to the well-considered existing legislation now laying upon the Governor's desk.

Mr. BART RICHARDS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, for the benefit of some of the members who are in their first term I want to agree with Mr. Marcus that things are sometimes done in the closing days of the session that are discourteous. They were done last session. This bill is an example of that very thing. This bill is on the calendar, and for one I would like to know how it got there. It seems to me that after an agreement had been made to keep it in committee that it should have been kept there. I think you are all familiar with the fact that right now there is an attempt being made to pickle a bill which comes from the same committee as this bill. This bill has been put out in the last minutes of the session and is before you to pass, but as Mr. Spangler has well said, this law may very likely nullify bills already passed.

Mr. McCLURE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to Mr. Richards as to how this bill reached the floor of this House I have this to say. The bill was passed in the Senate yesterday, messaged to the House and referred to the Judiciary General Committee of which I am the chairman. I immediately went among the members of that committee and I have in my hand a leaflet signed by approximately fifteen members of that committee authorizing the reporting of this bill to the floor of the House. The bill is properly and fairly before you and again I ask you to give this bill fair treatment and vote this motion down.

Mr. HOWE. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, what I might say in regard to this bill would not be a supposition. What I am going to tell you is with reference to a telegram in my hands from the President of the Allegheny County Association of Township Commissioners, the people most vitally affected by this bill:

"Senate Bill 714 will be the most vital and protective measure for the integrity of townships in general, has passed the Senate and is now before the House for your consideration. May I most earnestly request you, in behalf of the Allegheny County Association of Township Commissioners, to immediately extend your personal support and influence in securing the passage of this important measure with the assurance of our sincere gratitude and appreciation."

Now, members of the House, I don't believe that there is any one who should be more or better qualified to judge as to whether this is good legislation for the townships or not than this president of the Allegheny County Supervisors Association.

Mr. MUSMANNO. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to subscribe to what the chairman of the Judiciary General Committee has said with regard to the manner in which this bill is now on the calendar. It is on the calendar in the most perfect and orderly manner in view of the fact that a majority of that committee, of which I am a member, signed to have it reported back to the House and it is therefore on the calendar most properly. Furthermore, a vote to recommit it at this time means a vote to defeat it.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I must still stand in line with that which has been my policy since coming here, and that is to be back of all legislation concerning first class townships and townships in general. I want to say in behalf of the very able Senator Weingartner, that when the Weingartner bill came up for consideration he did everything within his power to further what the third-class city organization was trying to do, but I must still stand with the first-class townships and substantiate what our friend from Allegheny, Mr. McClure, has said. It has been the attempt of third-class city organizations and of organizations in general, to break up townships throughout the State for the benefit of the cities. While we all see and recognize the necessity of the extending of the city, and agree that they should expand, yet we must contend that the people who live within the townships have a right to say what is to be done with the territory within their boundaries. If you are what I have always contended you are in this Legislature, and that is the most fair-minded people that we ever had here, you will agree that we in the first-class townships must keep the protection that we have, and that is to say what shall be done with the territory that is within our boundaries. I ask you at this time to vote down this motion to recommit and let this bill come before the House on third reading in order that the merits of the bill may be fully discussed.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The Speaker declared the ayes appear to have it.

Whereupon a division was called for, and thirty-six members voting in the affirmative and eighty-four in the negative, the motion was not agreed to.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE.

Mr. WILSON, from the Committee on Education, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 824, entitled:

Ordered, To be transcribed for a third reading.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, on March 20th I introduced a resolution calling for an investigation into state aid institutions. I do not at this time desire to call up that resolution, but I do for the benefit of one of my colleagues wish to straighten out some information that was spread in our community with the intent to do harm to that member. In referring to that information that was printed in our local papers, I would like to interrogate the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

The SPEAKER. Will the Chairman of Appropriations Committee, Mr. Goodnough, permit himself to be interrogatd?

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a point of order.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his point of order.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I doubt whether the gentleman can interrogate the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee under a question of personal privilege

The SPEAKER. I would say to the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Brown, that his interrogation is going rather far afield under a question of personal privilege.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the reason for my request to interrogate the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee is because at the time this resolution was adopted a statement was presented in the newspapers that referred to the report read by the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee, and the only desire I had in interrogating the Chairman was for the purpose of securing a statement to the effect that he had not asked this House to adopt the report as handed to him by the Auditor General with reference to the institutions.

The SPEAKER. The Chair is constrained to rule that interrogation under a question of personal privilege is out of order. However, the Chair would suggest to the gentleman from Luzerne that he might privately receive answers to his questions from the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, if the interrogations at this time are out of order, then I will state; and I wish it to be spread upon the Legislative Journal, that the Chairman of the Appropriations Committee notified me that he had not asked the House to adopt any resolution or to vote on this information, and that the article that appeared in our paper, that implicated the member from Luzerne, was an erroneous statement; that this House did not vote on the adoption of this report. This statement spread upon the Journal will relieve the member from Luzerne from further embarrassment.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Brown, will be spread at length upon the Journal.

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 17, 1929.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 786, Printer's No. 227, File Folio 2161, entitled, "An act authorizing and directing the State Workmen's Compensation Fund in certain cases to contribute toward losses of their insured" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 17, 1929.

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 465, Printers No. 796, File Folio No. 6797, entitled, "An act permitting the district attorney or any assistant district attorney in the several counties of this Commonwealth to be present during the presentation of all matters to the grand juries in their sessions in the several third class counties of this Commonwealth lay before them matters upon which they are to pass and to aid them in their examination of witnesses"

be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

RECESS.

The SPEAKER. If the Chair hears no objection, he will declare a recess at this time until 3.30 o'clock this afternoon.

AFTER RECESS.

The House reconvened at 3.30 o'clock P. M.

The SPEAKER (Aaron B. Hess) in the Chair.

REPORT OF CONFERENCE COMMITTEE.

Mr. WILSON presented the report of the Committee of Conference on House Bill No. 1956, entitled:

An Act to amend Section one hundred one and one hundred sixteen as amended and two hundred ten of an act approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred eleven (Pamphlet Laws three hundred nine) entitled "An act to establish a public school system in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania together with the provisions by which it shall be administered and prescribing penalties for the violation thereof providing revenue to establish and maintain the same and the method of collecting such revenue and repealing all laws general special or local or any parts thereof that are or may be inconsistent therewith" providing that school districts of the fourth class shall not be created without the consent of the State Council of Education and for the appointment of school directors in school districts of the fourth class not coterminus with a city borough incorporated town or township or two or more of said municipal divisions

An Act to amend section one of the act approved the day of one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws Act No) entitled "An act imposing a State tax on liquid fuels including all Liquids ordinarily practically and commercially usable in internal combustion engines for the generation of power including all distillates of and condensates from petroleum natural gas coal coal tar and vegetable ferments so usable and sold by dealers in this Commonwealth except for the purpose of resale or used by consumers when no tax thereon has been collected by dealers providing for the collection of such tax and the creation of liens and for the distribution and use of the revenues derived from such tax requiring bonds from dealers and providing for the compensation of dealers providing for the filing of certificates and reports of the sale of such liquid fuels to dealers and consumers as defined in this act providing for the issuing revoking and use of permits and fixing penalties" exempting from the provisions of said kerosene fuel oil and gas oil not used in motor vehicles which was laid over for printing.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Cameron, Mr. Goodnough, will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. GOODNOUGH. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, the remarks of the gentleman from Luzerne, Mr. Brown, under a question of personal privilege seemed to indicate that an impression obtained that as Chairman of the Appropriations Committee I have attempted to improperly influence legislation in the matter of appropriations to institutions alleged to be sectarian in character. I have done nothing of the kind. What I have done in cases where an institution was challenged as being sectarian was to secure a ruling from the Auditor General setting forth the nature of the information available to him and whether or not in his opinion the institution is sectarian within the meaning of the constitution. This information seemed to me to be necessary to guide the committee in its action on the bill and later, if I was present in the House, when the bill came on for final passage I read the report of the Auditor General into the record to the end that the membership of the House might have the same information to guide them in their action on the bill that I had to guide me. Of course, I have never asked the House to adopt any report made by the Auditor General.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. EDWARD BROWN. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in answer to the gentleman from Cameron County, Mr. Goodnough, I wish to state that if I were to leave an impression on this House that Mr. Goodnough as Chairman of the Appropriations Committee was unfair in any activity in connection with Appropriations or reports read, I would feel it my duty, and I do apologize to the chairman for any such remarks.

BILL POSTPONED.

Mr. STERLING. Mr. Speaker, I move that House Bill No. 2163, (Senate Bill No. 1145), file folio 6895, entitled:

An Act creating ad appropriating a fund for the purpose of rebuilding, restoring and replacing real and personal property of the Commonwealth damaged or destroyed by fire or other casualty; and prohibiting the purchase of insurance for the above purposes.

on page 9 of today's calendar, bills on third reading, be placed upon the postponed calendar.

Mr. WITKIN. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER.

The SPEAKER. On behalf of the Chief Clerk of the House, the Chair wishes to announce that the hour for holding the luncheon has been changed from 12.00 o'clock to 11.30 o'clock.

QUESTION OF PERSONAL PRIVILEGE.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of personal privilege.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state his question of personal privilege.

Mr. STAUDENMEIER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, in the metropolitan newspapers dated Tuesday, April 16th, appeared the heading, "Up-State Vote Again Defeats Firearms Bill." Further on, "Legion Aids Defeat", and in the article itself it refers to the American Legion as having aided in the defeat of the firearms bill.

The Commander of the Pennsylvania Department of the American Legion is here today. Representatives of the Legislative Committee of the American Legion are here and they have assured me that the American Legion did not take any action, either pro or con, on what is commonly known as the firearms bill. Further, that the Legion at all times has been in favor of legislation which tenders to work for peace and good order and that up to this time it has not sponsored or favored any legislation which would do otherwise.

If you will pardon me for becoming personal as to what the Legion did in this House on this particular bill, let me say this: The Schuylkill County delegation of five members all voted for the firearms bill, three of whom are ex-service men and members of the American Legion, and it is only reasonable to believe that if the American Legion in Pennsylvania had taken any action either in favor or against this particular bill, at least one of the members of the members from Schuylkill Coutny who was an ex-service man would have been acquainted with that action. I think that the articles are unfair and have placed the American Legion in a bad light in this Commonwealth.

The SPEAKER. The remarks of the gentleman from Schuylkill, Mr. Staudenmeier, under his question of personal privilege will be spread at length upon the Legislative Journal.

BILL SIGNED BY THE SPEAKER.

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 1867.

An Act authorizing and empowering parties to contracts in which advances of money repayable on demand are made upon warehouse receipts bill of lading certificates of stocks certificates of deposit bill of exchange bonds or other negotiable instruments pledged as collateral security for such payment to an amount not less than five thousand dollars to receive or to contract to receive in writing and collect as compensation any sum to be agreed upon

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

of the fact that any one or more sections subsections sentences clauses phrases or requirements be declared unconstitutional

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?
It was agreed to.
On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. McALEE. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I desire to say a few words in behalf of this bill. It was sponsored by the distinguished gentleman from Lehigh County, Senator Schantz, President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

There is no class of people in Pennsylvania holding themselves out to serve the public that handles so much of the public's money, as do real estate brokers. There is no class of business in Pennsylvania that has more opportunity to solicit the confidence of the people and of the public than the real estate brokers. Practically every class or profession in Pennsylvania that holds themselves out to serve the public is under the observation and restraint of someone in authority. Lawyers are under the observation and restraint of the courts. Insurance men are under the observation and the restraint of the Insurance Department. The healing arts are under the observation and restraint of the Department of Public Health, and the banks and trust companies are under the observation and the restraint of the Department of Banking. This bill is intended to place the real estate brokers under the observation and restraint of the Department of Public Education of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. This bill is similar to other bills now in effect in twenty-three states of the Union. It is in effect in our neighboring states of New York, New Jersey, Ohio and Delaware.

I live in the eastern end of the State, Northampton County, and have had an opportunity to become familiar with the particular working of the New Jersey act. In New Jersey the act has been highly successful and has been self-supporting, and has protected the people of New Jersey from the slippery dealings of unscrupulous real estate agents. The fees charged in this bill are similar to those charged in the State of New Jersey. This bill only regulates those brokers who receive a fee or compensation for acting for another. It does not affect the owner of a property who desires to sell his own property or who desires to subdivide his unimproved real estate. Nor does it affect the occasional dealer who makes a real estate transaction or a rent transaction. It is true that under this bill a single occasional transaction is regarded as prima facie evidence that such a person is a real estate dealer, but this can be refuted by showing that the person making such an occasional sale or such an occasional rental did not intend to engage in the real estate business and did not hold himself out as such. This bill is intended to protect the public from shrewd and unscrupulous real estate dealers. We in the eastern end of the State have become the dumping ground for unscrupulous and crooked real estate men who have been deprived of the opportunity of continuing their operations in the State of New Jersey. They come into our county; they obtain the confidence of the people, many of whom are workers in our slate mines and our cement mills and in our steel and textile mills. They obtain money from them under false pretenses; obtained on mortgages and judgments on property that has never existed. The people have no redress except to sue and arrest. The agent is arrested and indicted, but before the trial of the case they rob someone else and pay the informer off and have the indictment nolle prossed, because, remember, Members of the House, that to such victims as these money is far more important than in having people sentenced to jail. I feel that this is a very important piece of legislation, and should be passed by the members of this House.

Mr. DONNELL. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, I would like to call the attention of the Members of this House to what a real estate broker is, by the terms of the act. On page 1, beginning at section 2, it says: "The term real estate broker shall include all persons—" now turning to page 2—"who shall offer or attempt to negotiate the sale, exchange, purchase or rental or to so hold himself or themselves out as engaged in the business of selling, exchanging, purchasing or renting of any real estate, interest in real estate, the property of another, whether the same shall be located within the State of Pennsylvania or elsewhere, or shall collect, or shall offer or attempt to collect rental." I believe, Mr. Speaker and ladies and gentlemen of the House, that that means what it says or else it should not mean anything. I think if you, as my neighbor, would ask me to rent your property for you when you are away from home and you would offer to pay me anything for that service during that time, that I would be a violator of this act, and therefore, ladies and gentlemen, I consider it mighty poor legislation and think that it should be defeated.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, it is rather a difficult proposition to pass a bill that has been amended as frequently as this bill has been amended. Having left the Committee of Judiciary General with the countless number of amendments that have been offered, it is rather difficult to know just exactly what to oppose. But, getting into the general merits of the bill, it is nothing more than an exclusive opportunity for a particular group of men to pass upon the business of other people. It provides for a board composed of three persons, each of whom is to receive $25.00 per day per person for the services they render. There is to be a secretary to that board, who has the right to hire as many employes as he may think necessary, and just to make it impossible for the individual of average, moderate means to get a license. No individual can get a license to sell real estate under this bill unless he files an application, and that application must be endorsed by two persons who own real estate. If that applicant should be refused a license for something he has done, he cannot appear before this board for a period of one year. The argument of the gentleman from Venango, Mr. Donnell, is correct. If you were to delegate a friend of yours to sell your home and that friend of yours knew someone who might buy your home, and the sale was made, he would be guilty of a misdemeanor under this act. Don't you think that the Members of this House have followed a very wise policy in this session of 1929 in voting down all measures in which there was a provision for the creation of boards? The safe thing to do is to continue to permit the average man, the man who is expected to earn a livelihood, to have an opportunity of following his business without appearing before a board. He has no assurance that he will receive equitable treatment at the hands of that board. The purpose of the bill is said to be to make dishonest men, honest men, but there is no legislation on God's earth that will ever make a dishonest man an honest man. I feel that the method we have today is well enough, and I ask you to leave the legislation as we have it today alone and vote this bill down.

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, may I interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg?

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLUMBERG. With pleasure, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. SPANGLER. For information, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia to what extent the bill if it becomes a law, would interfere with private sales of real estate, either by a man for himself or for his family, or for his friends?

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, replying to the gentleman from York, let me state that this bill does not apply to any single isolated transaction. It is aimed to regulate the real estate broker whose business is to deal in real estate.

Secondly, I wish to say that, on page 3, it explicitly excludes from the operation of the act the owner himself of any real estate, or anyone who, acting for the owner of the real estate, has a letter of attorney so to act. In regard to that I say that, in so far as the owner is concerned, he can deal with his real estate as he sees fit without any regulation under this act. If you, however, wanted to delegate to some member of your family the right to sell that real estate, or any number of parcels of real estate, then you would give to some person in your family, or stranger, if you saw fit, a letter of attorney, giving him the right to deal with that real estate.

I would like to read you just this section. "Neither of the said terms 'real estate broker' or 'real estate salesman' shall be held to include within the meaning of this act any person, firm, partnership or corporation who as owner shall perform any of the acts with reference to property owned by them, nor any person holding in good faith a duly executed letter of attorney from the actual owner of any real estate."

Mr. SPANGLER. Mr. Speaker, that answers my question.

Mr. TALBOT. Mr. Speaker, I wish to compliment the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, upon his explanation of a point which seems to have gotten around that it would affect a man who is not in the real estate business and wishes to sell a property.

I am sorry, Mr. Speaker, that I do not agree with my distinguished friend from Allegheny County, Mr. Marcus, and I am sorry, also, that he is not proving himself, in the last days of the session, consistent, because this is about the only branch of business that is not regulated by the State government. The bill in itself is very simple. It establishes a board along the same lines as other boards that have been organized, and for the small fee of ten dollars these real estate brokers can get their licenses. The only qualification necessary to procure a license is that the man is able to read and write, and that he has his recommenders, two in number, testifying as to his honesty and truthfulness. For the information of Mr. Marcus, the gentleman from Allegheny, and the rest of the Members of the House, the pay for the board is eliminated entirely; in the bill as it now stands the clause providing for twenty-five dollars a day is stricken from the record.

We realize that legislation cannot make honest men, but legislation can discover dishonest men, and with a statute of this kind written upon our books we can punish the man that is fooling the people. We realize that no perfect legislation in its infancy can be enacted, but, ladies and gentlemen of the House, this is a step in the right direction, and I sincerely hope you will vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. SOWERS. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, the bill you have before you is, in substance, the same as the present New Jersey law. I have had some experience with the working of the New Jersey law. A salesman or a broker in New Jersey may take a deposit and may appropriate it to himself, keep it, and give some client or some buyer a faulty agreement. There may be many technicalities of law that prevent you from recovering the money from that broker or salesman. In New Jersey you file a complaint with the Commission, or their department there, there is a hearing—and inevitably the crooked broker turns back the money. Since New Jersey has a law of this kind, and since New York has a law of a similar character, and some of the other states have it, we find that many of the slippery, crooked salesmen of real estate are coming over into Pennsylvania selling lots on commission. This class of salesmen are imposing upon our people, and certainly there is a great need for some remedy. This whole bill gives a person that has been deceived an opportunity to complain.

At the present time a real estate broker pays a license fee of approximately ten dollars a year. It is only a revenue. There is no opportunity for anyone to complain. There is no opportunity to relieve somebody who has been cheated or defrauded. If this bill is passed and is put in operation, then there will be an opportunity so that service can be rendered to those that have been defrauded. There seems to be a question throughout the House to the effect that this law would apply to individual transactions. For instance, the question was put to me, "Suppose a man died, would his wife have to have a license to sell real estate?" That question is almost too absurd to ask. Anybody can sell real estate to any other person without coming under the provisions of this bill unless they determine to set themselves up in the real estate business and make it known to the public that they are real estate brokers. Our present law is clear on that subject. An occasional sale of real estate does not deprive a man from collecting a commission, but if he sets himself up as a broker he is not entitled to a commission. I think that this bill is a step in the right direction. It has worked well in New Jersey, and I think it will work well in Pennsylvania.

Mr. STADTLANDER. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to say to you that no reputable citizen need fear this bill. If you have any doubt about this act that it might affect the actions of an honest man, just disabuse your mind of that. It does not, because this act is directed at the man who is dishonest, and if you are honest and if your transactions are honest you need have no fear of this act. We are proposing to do in Pennsylvania merely what has been done in New Jersey and in New York, and we are informed that there is an act now in the Maryland legislature similar to the act which is before us. Are we going to shut ourselves in as an isolated State, where the scum of these scoundrels may come into Pennsylvania and do the dastardly work that they are now doing?

In the western part of the State, almost on the boundary of the Ohio line, real estate agents came over and sold lots to the unsophisticated mill men and the miners in that section. They offered these lots to them at $50, $75 and $100 apiece, and told them that they were ideally located, and when they came to investigate they found these lots were on the hillsides, almost perpendicular, so steep that you would not have been able to build a bird house on them. Therefore I say that we want some legislation that is going to protect these innocent men of Pennsylvania and protect the unsophisticated, an act that makes the real estate broker responsible.

On the matter of having a broker's license refused to you, let me say that, if you have any complaint to make about a license that is refused you, you still have the right to appeal to the court of Dauphin County, and if the Dauphin County courts refuse you, you still have the right to appeal to the Supreme Court, and various cases have been carried to the Supreme Court of the United States. In one case it was declared constitutional, and you need have no fear that this act is unconstitutional.

Now, Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I wish to call your attention to the section that was given to you by Mr. Blumberg, although he did not read up far enough in the section. You will see that this also applies to attorneys. No attorney in the House need have any fear of the act. Read this section, which says: "Nor shall they be held to include in any way attorneys at law and justices of the peace, nor shall they be held to include any receiver, trustee in bankruptcy, administrator or executor or any other person or corporation acting under the appointment or order of any court or as trustee under the authority of a will or deed of trust or any banking institution operating under the laws of Pennsylvania." What is fairer than that? You need have no fear that, because you may make a single transaction, you are going to be prosecuted. You are protected under this act. I ask you to vote "aye" on this bill.

Mr. GOEHRING. Mr. Speaker and Members of the House, far be it from me to say to the real estate association that they have no right to organize into a body for the purpose of aiding their vocation. And far be it from me to say to them that they have no right to come down here and ask for a license to sell real estate. They have that right, and we have the right to give it to them, and in doing so we are going to protect, not the crooks, but the innocent man.

Now, our friend from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, says that the friend selling a piece of property for you is not liable under this act. Section 2, page 1, says what a broker is. It says: "The term 'real estate broker' shall include all persons, co-partnerships, associations and corporations, foreign and domestic, who, for another and for a fee, commission or other valuable consideration, shall sell, exchange, purchase or rent, or shall negotiate the sale, exchange, purchase or rental, or shall offer or attempt to negotiate the sale, exchange, purchase or rental." Now, if they want to be honest in their dealings with us, why didn't they say "By holding themselves out as real estate brokers." If they had done that I would have been willing to have gone along with this bill. It is true that, under the provisions of this bill, if you ask one of your friends or neighbor to put a mortgage on your home, or to sell your property, and he placed the mortgage or made the sale of your property, and you paid him $50 or $100, then he is guilty under this act. That is what he is. I say to you that there is no reason why they should not have put in this bill the words, "by holding themselves out as real estate brokers." That would have protected the innocent man.

Now, Mr. Speaker, I want to call your attention to one thing further. There are many errors in this bill, and if you read this bill as it stands you don't know what it means.

On page 4, section 4, you find that it takes out a paragraph, but it does not end the paragraph. There is one error.

On page 19, in line 18, it talks about a license when it means the licensee.

On page 20, in line 17, it takes out a paragraph beginning with "Commission," but it doesn't end that paragraph.

Now, Mr. Speaker, they can talk to us about a single transaction not bringing anyone under the provisions of this act. I call your attention to page 2, line 19, and I will read that to you. "One act in consideration of compensation by fee, commission or otherwise of buying, selling, renting or exchanging any such real estate of or for another or attempting or offering so to do or negotiating a loan upon or leasing or renting or placing for rent any such real estate or collection of rent therefrom shall constitute prima facie evidence that the person, copartnership, association or corporation so acting or attempting to act is a real estate broker within the meaning of this act." There is your one case and there is your exceptional case. That case specifically brings you under this act.

I call your attention further to page 28. Suppose I am a broker, a licensed broker, and you, through your friendship for me, assist me in closing a deal—you are not a lawyer and you are not a licensed broker—you are guilty under this act. I am going to read it to you.

Page 23, section 15 (a) says: "It shall be unlawful for any licensed real estate broker or real estate salesman to pay any compensation in money or other valuable thing to any person other than a licensed real estate broker or real estate salesman for the rendering of any service or the doing of any of the acts by this act forbidden to be rendered or performed by other than licensees."

The real estate brokers have been down here for the last four sessions, and with some of their acts I have gone along, because I do believe that they have a right to obtain a license. There is no question about it. We have crooks in the real estate business, and we have crooks in the legal business, and we have crooks in the medical profession, and we have crooks in all kinds of businesses, but that is no reason for making an innocent man a crook, as I think you are attempting to do under this act. Do you mean to tell me that if you have a home for sale, or if you want to put a mortgage on your home, and if you go to someone who is not a real estate broker and they handle the matter for you and you want to compensate them, that they are going to be guilty of a violation of this act? Certainly you don't want that. It is hard for me to speak against this bill, because I have a very friendly feeling for the men who are in the real estate business. I believe in their association. I truly believe in them, and I believe that they have a right to organize, but when they come in and try to put innocent people into a bill and make them guilty of offenses against the law I think that it is time that we protect those innocent people.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, I dislike very much to trespass any further on your time, and I only do it in view of the fact that Mr. Goehring takes exception to my definition of the term of a real estate broker. Mr. Goehring calls your attention to section 2. This section defines a real estate broker, and so far as that goes Mr. Goehring is correct, except that in section 1 it distinctly takes out of the definition of a real estate broker and a real estate salesman the owner or any agent of the owner. Section 2 begins by saying, "The term 'real estate broker' shall include all persons, co-partnerships, associations and corporations, foreign and domestic, who for another and for a fee, commission or other valuable consideration, shall sell, exchange, purchase or rent or shall negotiate the sale, exchange, purchase or rental or shall offer or attempt to negotiate the sale, exchange, purchase or rental or shall hold himself or themselves out as engaged in the business of selling, exchanging, purchasing or renting of any real estate," and so forth. But section "c" qualifies that definition, and it says, "Neither of the said terms 'real estate broker' or 'real estate salesman' shall be held to include within the meaning of this act any person, firm, association, partnership or corporation who, as owner, shall perform any of the acts with reference to property owned by them, nor any person holding in good faith a duly executed letter of attorney from the actual owner of any real estate," which also takes out of the provisions of the act the person who does the act for the owner.

So much for that first objection. It is also true, as Mr. Goehring points out, that there are three or four typographical errors in the bill. On page 4, which was eliminated, the page begins with a bracket and the end of the page does not include the last bracket. That is true on page 19. In so far as these typographical errors are concerned, we are aware of them, and we have amendments prepared to pass in the Senate when we ask them to concur in the amendments we have made in this bill.

There is only one other objection that the gentleman from Allegheny has brought to your attention. That is the question of the splitting of commissions. If we are going to regulate the unscrupulous, glib real estate salesman, we have got to regulate as to him first and then we have got to prevent any other real estate broker from dealing with him.

In other words, as we cannot have a crook get the honest man to do his work and then the two split the commission. Therefore we have placed in the act a provision that no real estate broker may split his commission with one who is not a real estate broker.

There is really not very much to this act. It is a regulatory act. All it attempts to do is to regulate those people who deal in real estate. Any person can get a license under the act, because all you need to know is reading, writing and arithmetic, and if you are honest that is the extent of your qualifications. There are no two ways about it. The act distinctly says so. There is a remedy provided for should the commission want to be arbitrary. Mr. Marcus says that you don't get a hearing. The act specifically provides that, before the commission has the right to refuse a license or suspend or revoke a license, before they can take that action they are required to notify the applicant of the charges preferred against him in writing and submitted to him at least five days before any action is taken. It gives the applicant the right to appear before the commission with counsel; it gives the applicant the right to demand any papers relative to any charges preferred against him.

There is another safeguard. Suppose the commission, after they have considered an application, refuses a license, or suspends or revokes it. The applicant has the right to appeal from the ruling of the commission to the courts. Certainly in court he has his remedy.

Every known safeguard to protect the man who wants to honestly deal in real estate has been placed in this bill. The amendments were gotten together and placed in the bill by the Judiciary General Committee, and the bill was then reported out for your consideration. What the bill does is not to make it impossible to get a license, but to regulate those people who are permitted to deal in real estate.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentlemen from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BLUMBERG. I will, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. MARCUS. Mr. Speaker and members of the House, I would like to ask the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Blumberg, if, under the provisions of this act, a client went to an attorney for a power of attorney to comply with this act, and after the individual received the power of attorney it was found not to be legally drawn, whether that individual would be guilty of a misdemeanor under this act.

Mr. BLUMBERG. Mr. Speaker, my answer to the interrogation is no, because the act says any person holding in good faith a duly executed power of attorney.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

RESOLUTION.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 263 FROM THE GOVERNOR.

Mr. HAINES asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted:

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That House Bill No. 263, Printer's No. 963, White File Folio 5590, entitled "An Act to amend section twenty-six and section thirty-five as amended and section thirty-six of an act approved the eleventh day of May one thousand nine hundred and twenty-one (Pamphlet Laws five hundred twenty-two) entitled 'An act relating to dogs and the protection of livestock and poultry from damage by dogs providing for the licensing of dogs by the Secretary of Agriculture providing for the enumeration of dogs by assessors regulating the keeping of dogs and authorizing their destruction in certain cases providing for the protection of licensed dogs and for dogs temporarily imported for trial show and breeding purposes prescribing certain privileges for hunting dogs and dogs owned or used by the Board of Game Commissioners providing for the assessment of damages done to livestock and poultry by dogs and for the illegal killing of licensed dogs and the payment of such damages by the Commonwealth imposing powers and duties on certain State county city borough town and township officers and employes directing the payment of all moneys collected into the State Treasury and making an appropriation thereof and providing penalties'" be recalled from the Governor for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

RESOLUTION.

RECALLING HOUSE BILL NO. 1663 FROM THE GOVERNOR

Mr. McCLURE asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a resolution, which was twice read, considered and adopted:

In the House of Representatives, April 17, 1929.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR.

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication from His Excellency the Governor which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF RESOLUTION.

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, April 17, 1929.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

I have the honor to inform you that I have this date approved and signed a resolution of the House and Senate recalling from the Governor, House Bill No. 263, file folio 5599, for the purpose of amendment.

Accordingly, the original bill is herewith returned.

JOHN S. FISHER.

RECONSIDERATION OF VOTE.

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which House Bill No. 263 passed finally be reconsidered.

Mr. YEAKEL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker, I move that the vote by which this bill passed third reading be reconsidered.

Mr. YEAKEL. Mr. Speaker, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. HAINES. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent to offer amendments at this time.

The SPEAKER. The amendments will be read by the Clerk for information.

The Clerk read the amendments as follows:

Amend page 8, line 9, by inserting after the word "Agriculture" and before the word "Any", a bracket [

Amend page 8, line 15 by inserting after the word "act" at the end of the line, a bracket "]".

The SPEAKER. Will the House give unanimous consent to the insertion of the amendments at this time? Is there any objection? The Chair hears none, and the amendments will be inserted in accordance with the instructions of the House.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

Ordered, That the bill as amended lie over for printing.

REPORT OF THE COMMITTEE ON RULES.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS. Mr. Speaker, representing the Committee on Rules, I desire to offer a resolution from that Committee. At a meeting of the Committee to-day it was thought wise to make certain recommendations to the House at this time in the matter of the arrangement of committees for the session of 1931. In the work of the House a condition has arisen that makes it necessary, in the judgment of the Committee on Rules, to recommend a reclassification of the committees and to that end this resolution is offered.

Mr. GEORGE W. WILLIAMS asked and obtained unanimous consent to offer a report of the Committee on Rules, which was twice read, considered and adopted.

Resolved, That Rule No. 27 of the Rules of the House of Representatives be amended to read as follows:

27. The following committees shall be appointed at the beginning of each session until otherwise ordered:

A Committee on Aeronautics.
A Committee on Agriculture.
A Committee on Appropriations.
A Committee on Banking.
A Committee on Boroughs.
A Committee on Building and Loan Associations.
A Committee on Cities.
A Committee on Congressional Apportionment.
A Committee on Constitutional Amendments.
A Committee on Corporations.
A Committee on Counties.

A Committee on Education.
A Committee on Elections.
A Committee on Federal Relations.
A Committee on Fisheries.
A Committee on Forestry.
A Committee on Game.
A Committee on Geological Survey.
A Committee on Highways.
A Committee on Insurance.
A Committee on Judicial Apportionment.
A Committee on Judiciary General.
A Committee on Judiciary Local.
A Committee on Judiciary Special.
A Committee on Law and Order.
A Committee on Legislative Apportionment.
A Committee on Manufacturers.
A Committee on Military Affairs.
A Committee on Mines and Mining.
A Committee on Municipal Corporations.
A Committee on Pensions and Gratuities.
A Committee on Printing.
A Committee on Public Health and Sanitation.
A Committee on Public Utilities.
A Committee on Railroads and Railways
A Committee on Repeal Bills.
A Committee on Rules.
A Committee on State Government.
A Committee on Townships.
A Committee on Ways and Means.

The Committees on Apportionment shall be appointed only at such times when apportionments are required to be made.

SAMUEL J. PERRY,
JOHN M. FLYNN,
GEO. W. WILLIAMS,
JOSEPH C. MARCUS.

SENATE MESSAGE.

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE.

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, April 17, 1929.

Whereas, The estimate of the Budget Secretary is that the expenses of the Commonwealth for the fiscal biennium beginning June first, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine will be approximately three hundred and forty million dollars, and

Whereas, The present system of State taxation is evidencing the fact that it is inadequate and not flexible enough to provide sufficient revenues for such a large budget, therefore be it

Resolved, (if the House of Representatives concur), That the President Pro Tempore of the Senate is hereby authorized to appoint three members of the Senate, and the Speaker of the House of Representatives is hereby authorized to appoint four members of the House of Representatives who shall constitute a legislative committee which is authorized to devise ways and means of financing the Commonwealth in the future, and to make report of their recommendations to the General Assembly of one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the Senate accordingly.

COMMONWEALTH OF PENNSYLVANIA

Legislative Journal.

Session 1929 — 128th of the General Assembly

Vol. 11 — HARRISBURG, THURSDAY APRIL 18, 1929. — No. 40

SENATE.

THURSDAY, April 18, 1929.

The Senate met at 12.05 o'clock A. M.

The PRESIDENT. PRO TEMPORE (Horace W. Schantz) in the Chair.

PRAYER.

The Chaplain, Rev. Christian H. Shirk, offered the following prayer:

Thou God of Infinite Mercy, we thank Thee that Thou hast safely brought us to this final period of our legislative session. If we have left undone, officially, things we ought to have done or have done that which we should not have done, we pray for Thy forgiveness and ask that Thou mayest overrule our mistakes to good advantage.

We pray Thy blessing to rest upon any that have been handicapped through ill-health during these sessions from giving their time to their senatorial duties. We pray that they may speedily and fully recover.

Grant that we may have a safe return to our homes, and if, under Thy providence, we should never again have the pleasure of thus meeting together, we pray that each one of us may take part in the Great General Assembly and answer to the roll call there when Thou dost call us to the life of larger activities, to rule with Thee forever.

We ask for the forgiveness of all our sins and for the supply of all our needs; and we ask Thee to do for us exceedingly abundantly above all that we can ask of Thee. And Thy name shall have all the praise, world without end. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED.

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. DAVIS, the further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO HONORABLE HORACE W. SCHANTZ.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, there has been assigned to me a very pleasant duty and honor. It is my very pleasant privilege to present a gift. We could not bring it into this hall to show it to you. It is a beautiful electric oven, and it is being installed in the home of President Pro Tempore Schantz at the present time. We had asked him what he would like to have, and he thought of many things in the way of gifts but could not choose, and finally said "I do not know what I want." But after going home and having a talk with his good wife he decided that what he really wanted was an electric oven. So, that has been bought, and at the present time it is being installed in his home.

It is unnecessary for me to make any extended remarks on the attainments of this gentleman we know so well; but we will go back to the very beginning of his life, in 1875, when the light of day first shown upon him in Lehigh County. From that day on his character has been molded along the lines of truth and integrity; as a man he has always been sterling and upright. I looked over "Smull's" this morning, with the thought of memorizing the list of positions he has occupied during his lifetime; and I found it a long one: Instructor of youth, Supervisor, Justice of the Peace, Deputy Register of Wills and Solicitor of the Board of Prison Inspectors and County Auditors, and District Attorney—until he entered the Senate, in 1914, I believe. There are very few men who have a record like that; and we of the Senate are proud to have such a man in our midst. I hope he will accept our earnest good wishes along with this gift, and when the electricity is turned on and that oven burns brightly I hope he will say, "I will not forget the boys of the Senate of 1929."

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. President, Senator Daix and members of the Senate, I certainly appreciate the kind words uttered to the Senate by Senator Daix, and I would, at the beginning of the few remarks I will make, congratulate the body on the wise selection they have made of my successor. I am proud to see in front of him such beautiful roses and other flowers as an emblem of appreciation from his constituents, his neighbors and his friends and their gratification over the fact that he has been elevated and is being elevated to the fine post of President Pro Tempore of the Senate.

When you conferred this honor upon me I intended to be impartially fair in my decisions. If I have in any regard failed, fallen short of the fulfillment of those intentions, I assure you they were errors and mistakes of the head and not of the heart. I intended, no matter how grievously I may have failed, to treat you all graciously and kindly and with the utmost consideration.

So far as I am concerned, I am closing my ninth session in the Senate of Pennsylvania. I have been here for eight regular sessions and one special session, and I have never left any session with a better feeling, or more harmonious consideration and accord on the part of each and every individual member of this body than now; and regardless of what anybody may think or say to the contrary, I want to say that the relations between the President of the Senate and myself have been cordial to the greatest degree. I want to thank him, the Lieutenant-Governor, from the bottom of my heart for the consideration he has given me, for the times he has permitted me to preside over this dignified and illustrious body, permitted me to function as your Presdent Pro Tempore. Under the Constitution of Pennsylvania the Lieutenant-Governor is the President of the Senate, and the President Pro Tempore is to serve only when the President of the Senate desires relief or is unavoidably absent. Our Lieutenant-Governor, Mr. James, has been on duty considerably and yet has permitted me to preside on a number of occasions, and I want to thank him for that consideration.

So far as the Executive Department of the Commonwealth is concerned, I am sure that we have never left here with better understanding and better feeling between the Executive and the Senate than at the close of this session.

The oven which you have presented to Mrs. Schantz and myself is, I know, highly appreciated,—and not for its intrinsic value only but for the memories it carries with it, for the spirit in which I believe you have presented it, and, absolutely, for the spirit in which we receive it.

This modern age has many contrivances of which we knew nothing when I started to serve as a member of this body. Among the forces which we now utilize for our comfort and convenience electricity is in the forefront. Many things that are done by electricity now were done in a cruder way a few years ago; and I am sure that on the electric range or heater, or oven—whatever you call it—many things will be prepared which will satisfy the healthy appetite of your President Pro Tempore. I am getting older every day, of course, but my appetite, I am glad to say, is still intact; and I am sure that in that oven many meals will be prepared, many good things to eat, and, I dare say, to drink, which will take my memory back to the days of the session of 1929.

I thank you all from the bottom of my heart for this token for your courtesy, for your friendship, for your kind greeting and I certainly hope that when the session of 1931 opens each and every one of you will either be back here in your seat or in a position of higher honor, dignity and trust. I thank you.

PRESENTATION OF GAVEL TO HONORABLE HORACE W. SCHANTZ.

Mr. McKIRDY. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I can conceive of no greater privilege than of one friend paying tribute to another. In addition this is an official opportunity to express on behalf of the Senate and its officers and employes the high regard they have for the very wonderful presiding officer who has demonstrated his splendid character, fairness and ability to this session.

He needs no symbol of authority, but under the laws, regulations, rules and edicts it is customary to place in the hands of this man, this officer, some such symbol.

Therefore, it is a great pleasure to present to Senator Schantz, President Pro Tempore of the Senate, this gavel as a token of his right to preside over this assemblage and as evidence of an honorable and successful administration.

Mr. SCHANTZ. Mr. Chief Clerk, Mr. McKirdy I want to thank you and all the officers, page boys and everybody that contributed toward the presentation of this souvenir and emblem of authority. Unfortunately, of course, the use and the necessity for the emblem will terminate today; but it will be taken home and placed somewhere where it shall often remind me of the co-operation, the courtesy, the willingness of all the officers and clerks and page boys of the Senate to work with me.

This is, indeed, a fine and splendid gavel; and it indicates the dignity and the great importance of this upper branch of the General Assembly of Pennsylvania. I predict that the day will not be far distant when some of these boys and young men who have been serving so faithfully during the session will occupy some of the seats that are occupied now by the dignified members of this body; and I trust that some day in the future I may come back here as a spectator and see similar presentations to some of the young men that have been serving and aiding us so faithfully during this session. I thank you boys and officers from the bottom of my heart.

The PRESIDENT. Senator Schantz, I suggest to you that although your duties as the presiding officer of this body are at an end,—and you may have had some use for this particular implement while here,—I think there is another presiding officer over in a home in Lehigh County, who may have occasion to use it; so do not store it away but have it handy, so it will be within reach when needed.

May I express my appreciation, now, as President of this Senate, for the courtesy and kindness you have extended to me in being so willing on every occasion to assume the responsibilities and sometimes the tiring duties of repeating this calendar?

We are proud of the part played by the so-called "Pennsylvania Dutch" in the affairs of our great Commonwealth. These are Pennsylvanians of German extraction, and for the last 200 years they have taken a prominent part in the upbuilding of our State. This year we have had a Pennsylvania-German as President Pro Tempore of the Senate and a Pennsylvania-German as Speaker of the House of Representatives; and, in line with the policy of the administration, I have in mind the fact that the Executive Department and the Legislative Department have wanted to be in harmony; and the result has been that no session of the Legislature, in my memory, has been more harmonious and more beneficial to the public than the sessions of 1929. And I want to thank Senator Schantz for his kindness and courtesy.

ELECTION OF PRESIDENT PRO TEMPORE.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now proceed to the election of a President Pro Tempore, and ask unanimous consent to offer a resolution at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. HOMSHER offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

Resolved, That the Senate do now proceed to the election of a President Pro Tempore, and that the Clerks act as tellers.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President: The office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate is one of the most exalted to which one can aspire in Pennsylvania.

It is an office that can only be reached after a broad knowledge of statesmanship has been attained and after a long experience in this body.

The candidate for this office whom I am directed by the caucus of the Republican Senators to name, not only has these qualifications in a marked degree, but in addition, is a gentleman of such culture and exquisite refinement of manner that has made his election to the office unanimously accorded in by his Republican colleagues of the Senate.

So it is now my pleasant privilege to nominate for the office of Pro Tempore for the interim, the Honorable Augustus F. Daix, of Philadelphia.

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President and members of the Senate, I deem it an honor and a pleasure to take this opportunity of seconding the nomination of this candidate for the position of President Pro Tempore of the Senate, Honorable Augustus F. Daix, Jr. He has shown his character and his ability and his knowledge of legislative procedure in his work as Chairman of the Committee on Judiciary General, and he has had ample opportunity to demonstrate these qualities while handling its great volume of business, which he has done to the best interests of this great State and its people. His method of conducting the committee meetings, and of deciding the questions of delegations, hearings and consultations, has proven to us that we should nominate and elect him to the position of President Pro Tempore of this Senate during the interim,—with the view of re-electing him to that position for the session of 1931, to assist the incoming Lieutenant Governor; and I know that his selection will redound to the honor and good judgment of the Republican members, of the Republican Party and of the State of Pennsylvania.

Therefore, I second his nomination to the position of President Pro Tempore of the Senate of Pennsylvania for the interim.

Mr. HUFFMAN. Mr. President, I desire to place in nomination for this office the name of Honorable Warren R. Roberts, of Northampton County; and I would add that though we of the Democratic party are but a small minority in this body, we nevertheless represent one million votes in Pennsylvania.

Mr. McCROSSIN. Mr. President, I second the nomination of Honorable Warren R. Roberts, of Northhampton County, as President Pro Tempore for the interim.

Mr. KRAUSE. Mr. President, I move that the nominations be closed.

Mr. QUIGLEY. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. The roll will be called by the Chief Clerk.

The roll was taken as follows:

FOR MR. AUGUSTUS F. DAIX.

Apple,	Ealy,	Hunsicker,	Prince,
Aron,	Earnest,	Kitts,	Quigley,
Baldwin,	Einstein,	Krause,	Roberts,
Bell,	Fay,	Kunkle,	Salus,

Davis,	Homsher,	Parkinson,

FOR MR. WARREN R. ROBERTS.

Baumer,	Huffman,	McCrossin,
Daix,	Lanius,	Sones,

The PRESIDENT. The Clerks agree in their tally, and the result of their ballot is Mr. Augustus F. Daix forty-three votes and Mr. Roberts six votes. The Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. DAIX, has received the vote of the majority of all the members of the Senate and is, therefore, declared elected to the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate to serve during the interim beginning after this day's session has adjourned.

The PRESIDENT. The Chair appoints the Senator from Allegheny, Mr. Leslie, the Senator from Lancaster, Mr. Homsher, and the Senator from Northampton, a committee to escort the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Daix, the newly elected President Pro Tempore of the Senate, to the Bar of the Senate, where the oath of office will be administred by the Honorable John E. Fox, Additional Law Judge of the Twelfth Judicial District.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, we have the honor to present the Honorable Augustus F. Daix of Philadelphia County, the President Pro Tempore elect of the Senate, prepared to take the oath of office.

The oath of office was accordingly administered.

The PRESIDENT. May I express to you, Senator Daix, my sincere congratulations, and also those of the Senate, upon your election as President Pro Tempore.

The PRESIDENT. Members of the Senate, may I present to you the Honorable Augustus F. Daix, Jr., President Pro Tempore for the interim?

Mr. DAIX. Mr. President, Mayor Mackey, members of the Senate of Pennsylvania and friends, there are times in one's life when it is difficult to find words suitable for the occasion,—and this is one of them. To just merely thank you for the honor that you have done me inadequately express my feeling at this time. I have looked for some time with ambition at this office, but I have seen able and good men ahead of me; and they have inspired me to follow in their footsteps.

In electing me to the office of President Pro Tempore of the Senate you have done me a great honor, gentlemen, and one that I feel deeply. I can hardly give utterance to the thoughts that come into my mind on this occasion, because I fear I would be unable to carry conviction to your minds without that heartfelt expression that comes not only from the lips but absolutely from the heart; and I do want to express to you the appreciation I feel for the honor you have done me.

I feel that I can look forward with pride to the fact—and I claim it without fear of contradiction—that irrespective of party every man in the Senate of Pennsylvania is my friend; and that, to me, is everything. I want you to overlook whatever little errors I may make in this office, for those I do make will come from the head and not from the heart. And I only hope that when my tenure of office expires and I step down, that you will feel just the same toward me as you have felt toward my predecessors.

Time is going to pass quickly, and this, you may say, is just the beginning of the end; for when you start out it means the end is coming along quicker and quicker. I trust, if God permits me to be here at the next session, that you gentlemen will favor me with this honor once again; and I tell you, as I look upward into the face of a Living God, I will do my best to uphold the traditions of this Senate and of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, as to the manor born. And I highly appreciate the honor done our good old City of Philadelphia, I think of all she stands for, and it always hurts when a derogatory word is spoken against her. But, after all, from our great old river on the eastern end clear through to Senator Kitts' border county of Erie on the northwest, or whether it be the junction of the Allegheny and the Monongahela, let us say one thing and mean it,—Thank God we are Pennsylvanians! I thank you.

RECESS.

Mr. SALUS Mr. President, I move that the Senate do now take a recess for ten minutes.

Mr. ARON. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.

The PRESIDENT. Gentlemen of the Senate, of course, it has been a most unusual compliment to Senator Daix to have been elected President Pro Tem of the State Senate, and it is an evidence of the fact that in the performance of the duties of State Senator he has demonstrated his fidelity and ability; and not only here is he highly regarded but likewise in the city of his birth, Philadelphia. And we have here today a gentleman who speaks for that city, a city of two million persons; and, as an evidence of their love and affection and their high regard, I have the very great honor and pleasure to introduce to you the Honorable Harry A. Mackey, Mayor of the City of Philadelphia.

Mr. MACKEY. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate of Pennsylvania, this is surely a very gracious act upon your part, to grant the privilege of this platform to just a mere mayor of a city. I want to acknowledge the courtesy of your officers in calling me here and giving me this opportunity to express on behalf of the City of Philadelphia my appreciation of the honor you have visited on one of our most useful citizens.

I was very much pleased to notice the mindful suggestion of some of our Senators, that in voting for Senator Daix they added the "Junior" to his name,—because that is one of the traditions of his life, that he still clings to. We are not so sure he is entitled to it now, but at least it is with him; and we love to look upon him as a junior. And I know there is an Augustus F. Daix the third in Philadelphia,—and he is here today. I notice a great deal of satisfaction among members of Senator Daix's family, and I accepted this invitation to come here today very gladly, because kindly words that are spoken of a friend are golden words unto us, and the honor bestowed upon a friend is appreciated by his friends just as well.

I want to speak of Senator Daix as a citizen of Philadelphia. Modest, unpretentious, never seeking the limelight, yet in his own quiet, persistent way he has been one of the greatest factors for establishing Philadelphia as she really is today, and in proclaiming her greatness and her worth. He was born in Philadelphia, early became a member of the bar, associated him always with well worthwhile men, men who had vision of the future, who looked down the vista of the years and saw the greatness of the things they were enjoying, men of great activity on behalf of our organizations in Philadelphia, that give themselves over to the adornment of the city has made his record a very, very fine one in that respect; and I speak with satisfaction of the trade organizations and improvement associations, the great body of volunteer citizens known as The United Business Men's Association, which he helped organize and of which he was for years the president. I speak of the banking interests he represents as attorney. I speak for the citizens of Philadelphia,—that we are very grateful for the honor you have bestowed upon one of our fellow citizens.

Now, before I sit down I want to say just a word, perhaps, as this Senate scatters to all parts of the State; and just taking the risk of perhaps jarring for a minute those five adventures of the Democratic fold. As you 44 Republicans who voted here this morning go back to your homes and look into the future, I want you to look for us there in Philadelphia, giving no credit to the rumors that might have reached you either by speech or by the Press,—when you come to Philadelphia or call upon Philadelphia for your support you will find your party was never more solidly organized or the future so absolutely sure as it is today; and those who are looking for division of thought down there will have to look in vain in the future. I think perhaps that might be of some satisfaction to you 44 Republicans as you go back to your respective communities.

Now, Senator Daix, I have brought you just a little reminder of this event. The clock and my secretary were both so small I was afraid I would lose them both on the train. I want you to look upon that in the future as a reminder of this occasion, so that it may visualize to you the esteem and affection the citizens of Philadelphia have for you.

Mr. DAIX. Mr. Mayor, I can assure you, sir, that, in accepting this timepiece, time will pass on but the memory of today and of your kind words will remain with the recipient forever. I thank you.

AFTER RECESS.

The PRESIDENT. The time of recess having elapsed, the Senate will be in order.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO HONORABLE AUGUSTUS F. DAIX.

Mr. BUCKMAN. Mr. President, Senator Daix, member of the Senate of Pennsylvania, in taking the floor today to give another remembrance to our distinguished Senator from Philadelphia I am carried back 12 years when I went through an experience just similar to what he is going through today; and while it is a great honor and a great achievement to be elevated to that rostrum it is a very tedious and hard ordeal for any man to go through, and I sympathize with Senator Daix for the nervous strain under which he is laboring.

It is my pleasure at this time to give him some other little remembrance, that comes from the Committee on Judiciary General of the Senate of Pennsylvania. That committee, over which he has presided so long and so well, and those of us who have had the privilege and pleasure of serving upon that committee, know how well he has served not only the committee and the Senate of Pennsylvania but the whole Commonwealth.

He has presided in season and out of season, day and night, at executive sessions, committee hearings, individual conferences with the members of the committee and the members of the Senate, in a manner that bespeaks the careful, hard-working, painstaking man that he is. As I say, any man who has served upon that committee knows what a hard-working committee that is,—and especially our new members who have come into this Senate at the present session know that that is a committee by which a very large part of the real constructive work is done in this body.

And you, Senator Daix, have been fair to all of us; you have been more than fair,—you have been patient and painstaking, especially to the new members who were not familiar with the ways of legislation. You, Senator Daix, came to this Senate two years after I came; and you have been here continuously since. If my recollection serves me correctly your first session was the session of 1913. You have therefore served about 18 years here, whereas I have served here 20 years; and in all that time it has been my privilege and pleasure to observe the thorough manner in which you represent not only your constituents and your city but the way in which you serve the whole Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

And at this time, Senator Daix, I have been instructed by the Committee on Judiciary General, of which you are chairman, to inform you, if you do not already know it, that when you get home to-night with your family you will find in that home some beautiful rugs, or carpets, which I trust you will use and keep and enjoy many, many years to come.

Mr. DAIX. Senator Buckman and gentlemen of the Senate, you spoke a very true word, sir, when you said it was an ordeal; that is absolutely true. It is a great honor but all the same, as I said in the beginning of my remarks, when I accepted this position to which I was elected by you gentlemen, there is no one can face such an audience as this without feeling emotion.

I want to thank the members of the Committee on Judiciary General and any outside of that committee who were kind enough to give me this gift. It will always be cherished in my home in memory of the boys of the Senate of 1929. I thank you, Senator Buckman.

PRESENTATION OF TESTIMONIAL TO HONORABLE M. G. LESLIE.

Mr. SALUS. Mr. President and members of the Senate, it seems as though for some reason or other a very pleasant duty has devolved upon me this morning. When these proceedings started here I was somewhat amazed, because the first thing I heard was that some committee or other—and I think the Senate body itself—was going to present to the former presiding officer some electrical appliance; and from my knowledge of our presiding officer I saw no reason why he should be electrocuted. I thought maybe they were going to suggest that he be sent to the electric chair; but after listening for a while I found that the thoughts of the Senators were in the right place. It then dawned upon me what I might say in any presentation I might make.

In acting as chairman of the various committees of the Senate men must have not only knowledge, they must have keen judgment; and, above all things else, they must have courage,—because for a man at the head of any committee of this Senate not to have courage and a desire to do the right thing for all the people, regardless of what part of the Commonwealth he or she may hail from, will not make a successful chairman of any committe. In the performance of our duties as chairmen of committees or as Senators we cannot please all the people all the time. We sometimes pass legislation, very often pass legislation that is detrimental to our own constituents. Sometimes we pass legislation that looks most peculiar on its face. Some two years ago we passed in this Legislature an Act of Assembly increasing the salaries of the members of this Senate, and in the passing of this act, if we look back at it, in many ways we can see how unfair that particular Act was when applied to the different members of this body. For instance, under the new condition of affairs we pay to Senator Aron the sum of $3,000. Senator Aron is five foot three, weighs about 130 pounds, and can go into a clothing store and buy a new suit without any trouble as to fit; whereas our Senator from Montgomery County, Senator Boyd, is six foot three, weighs 200 pounds, and has to have his clothes made by contract, yet we are making him work for $2,500. So, you see it is impossible for us to please and be fair to all people of this Commonwealth in one Act of Assembly.

One of the most important chairmanships, when considered in relation to the interests of Pennsylvania, is the chairmanship of the Committee on Appropriations. In that committee the finances of this Commonwealth must be measured to fit circumstances and conditions; and to fit every circumstance and condition in Pennsylvania to the satisfaction of everyone, all of its citizens, is an absolutely impossible task. In acting as chairman of that committee a man must have, above all things else, courage, conviction, and must stand by right when right is right, regardless of what the feeling of some of the people might be when they leave this body.

As chairman of that committee we have had the most outstanding, courageous character in the history of Pennsylvania, a man who has been on the battle line of politics for the last 40 years, who has always been on the firing line, with the shock troops at the front,—doing right when right was right, regardless of what the consequence might be or the feeling of some individual.

It is with great pleasure that I at this time, on behalf of the Senate, present to the Honorable Max G. Leslie this gift; and I want to say to him, "We present this to you because of your manly character, because of your outstanding strength and your courage and convictions in the hour of necessity."

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, members of the Senate and friends, I now join the army of weakness. I appeal for strength and courage to express my thoughts in answer to the thoughts of the Senator from Philadelphia, Mr. Salus, in making this presentatiion to me on this occasion.

I have served in this body for 12 years, in five sessions; and I know of no time in my life, covering a period of a number of years in the thick of public life and toil, associating with and working with men of character, men of stability, honesty and integrity, men who stood for only one thing, and that was—this great Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

It does require courage, and it requires conviction to be placed in a position where one is besieged with requests for favors, sectional and personal, and yet having to refuse or compromise in order to take care of the interest of the people of this great State. But I am not the only chairman of the Appropriations Committee that has stood up,—because I have spent 12 years on that committee and I can speak for all of my predecessors. They have all stood up for the particular purpose that there should not be a weak link in the chain, so there would be no justification for a criticism that would charge them or their colleagues on that committee or the members of this Senate with giving way to personal favor in opposition to the interests of the State.

In the performance of their duty they have ofttimes been charged with selfishness; but I have yet to learn of a time when selfish purpose was the method or the mood or the thought. It has always been for the best interests of the Commonwealth.

So, if I have rendered a service equal to that of my predecessors, I am highly gratified; and this token of respect—I know not what it may be—I will now look upon with appreciation of the thought of those from whom it has come, of their love and admiration. It will be an heirloom that will go down in the history of my family as long as the kin that I have brought here on earth shall continue to bring others to take their places. I thank the members of the Senate, and I thank them from the bottom of my heart.

Which was committed to the Committee on Appropriations.

RESOLUTION RELATIVE TO UNEMPLOYMENT OF WAGE EARNERS.

He also presented extract from the Journal of the House, which was twice read as follows:

Whereas One of the most important if not troublesome and dangerous questions confronting the United States and now before the people for solution is the unemployment of the wage earner and

Whereas There is nothing more important calling for the immediate attention of our public officials than the question of unemployment and

Whereas Many attempts have been made from time to time by national state and municipal authorities to secure an approximate estimate of the number of wage earners unemployed at a given time but without results and

Whereas The question of unemployement like all other questions to be properly and intelligently handled it first becomes necessary to ascertain as accurately as possible all the facts in the case and

Whereas It is also necessary to recognize that there is a serious problem to be solved before it can be properly handled and because of lack of proper information this troublesome question if unemployment is no nearer solution today than it was years ago and

Whereas The provisions of the United States Constitution provides for the taking of the census every ten years and the legislation that it would be necessary to enact by Congress by which supervisors and enumerators will be appointed in all parts of the United States to take up the new census and

Whereas If this same organization that will be set up to do this work is directed to take the census of the unemployed wage earners throughout the United States this will be the means of obtaining for the first time intelligent and accurate information as to the number of unemployed in the United States therefore

Be it Resolved and it is hereby resolved that the Senate and House of Representatives of the one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine Session of the Pennsylvania State Legislature memorialize the Congress of the United States the United States Senators and Congressmen from Pennsylvania to use their best officers to have legislation enacted which will provide that the supervisors and enumerators taking up the new census will also take the census of the unemployed

Mr. LESLIE. Mr. President, I move that the resolution be committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. HOMSHER. Mr. President, I second the motion.

The motion was agreed to.
